NFL's All-Time Leading Passer Brett Favre
to speak at the PwC SMU Athletic Forum

DALLAS, TEXAS – AT&T and the PwC SMU Athletic Forum welcome 11-time Pro Bowl selection Brett Favre to Dallas on Friday, April 12, 2013.

The luncheon will begin at noon in the Chantilly Ballroom of the Hilton Anatole. Media availability begins at 10:45 a.m. in the Topaz Room of the Anatole.

After his senior year at the Southern Miss, Favre was drafted in the second round of the 1991 NFL draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He was traded to the Green Bay Packers in 1992. During his 16 seasons with the franchise, Favre led the Packers to seven Division titles, four NFC Championship games and a victory in Super Bowl XXXI. Favre went on to play for the New York Jets in 2008 and Minnesota Vikings 2009-10 before retiring from the NFL.

Favre holds numerous NFL records including, most career passing yards, most career completions and most career touchdown passes. He is the only player to win AP Most Valuable Player three consecutive times (1995-1997) and was named to the NFL 1990's all-decade team. He is currently the Offensive Coordinator for Oak Grove High School in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.
