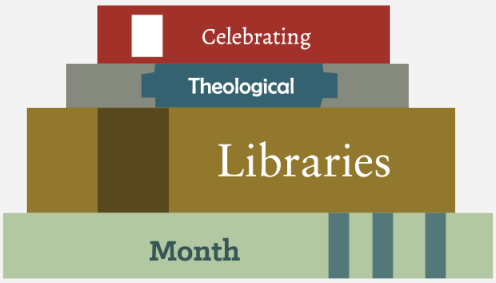
Theological Libraries Month

October 2013



Bridwell Lunch Talk

October 3, 12:30 p.m., Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

"Introduction to Special Collections and Archives"

Brown Bag Film and Discussion

October 10, 12:30 - 1:45 p.m., Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

Bring your lunch to Bridwell and enjoy the theological documentary MONSEÑOR: The Last Journey of Óscar Romero and a discussion led by Reference Librarians Jane Elder and David Schmersal. Drinks and dessert provided.

"New Life for Old Islamic Manuscripts"

Lecture by Professor Robert A. Hunt

October 24, 4:30 - 5:30 p.m., Bridwell Library Blue Room

In this lecture, Dr. Robert Hunt explores how the beautifully illuminated Islamic manuscripts of the holy Quran and other sacred readings preserved at Bridwell Library have helped Perkins School of Theology open doors to the Islamic world through relationships with Muslim academics and spiritual leaders.

CHAP Session

October 29, 11:30 a.m - 12:20 p.m., Prothro Hall

Did you know that writing church history research papers can be a rewarding experience… literally? Find out how by attending a CHAP session presented by Perkins School of Theology Professor Bill Bryan and Bridwell Library Archivist Tim Binkley. They will discuss monetary awards and publishing opportunities for students exploring United Methodist history.

Bridwell Lunch Talk

October 31, 12:30 p.m., Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

"Where There's a Need, There's an App"

Book Giveaway

During October look for book carts located near the lockers on the basement level. Take as many volumes as you wish - the carts will be restocked every day until we run out of books!