Spanish Major Requirements for Heritage Spanish Speakers

Spanish heritage speakers are Spanish/English bilingual individuals who have grown up in Spanish-speaking environments in the United States.

Students of Spanish heritage who matriculate in SMU prior to Fall 2013 must accumulate 24 term hours of advanced courses to complete the Spanish major. These eight courses must include the following:

- Two of the following conversation/composition courses: 4355 and 3373 or 3374.
- 4358
- 4395
- and a minimum of nine term hours of 5000-level courses in literature and linguistics, including at least one course in Spanish Peninsular literature and one course in Spanish American literature.

Recommendations:

Study abroad in a Spanish-speaking country is strongly recommended (see Spanish webpage listing for Study Abroad for a selection of programs).

Suggested electives outside the Spanish area are a second foreign language, courses listed under the Latin American Studies major, literary theory, other foreign literature in translation, English and American Literature.

ALL MAJORS AND PROSPECTIVE MAJORS SHOULD ALSO REVIEW THE SUGGESTIONS AND INFORMATION LISTED UNDER THE "ADVISING" HEADING OF THE WEBPAGE, AND VIEW THE SAMPLE FOUR-YEAR SCHEDULES PROVIDED THERE.
