Program Spotlight: Raas Rave and Bhangra Blitz

Raas Rave & Bhangra Blitz (R2B2) is an intercollegiate Raas/Garba and Bhangra Dance Competition hosted by Program Council. Teams from around the country compete in this world class competition for thousands of dollars in prize money. The performance is very popular in the Dallas community and SMU students are invited!

- R2B2 Mixer
  TONIGHT, 7pm, Hughes-Trigg Ballroom
  Food, music, dancing, and fun! Admission is free.
- R2B2 Competition
  TOMORROW, Saturday, Feb. 19 at 7pm, McFarlin Auditorium
  SMU students admitted for FREE with their student ID!

Teambuilder du jour—Balloon Castles

Divide your group into two or more teams. Each team has an equal amount of ballons and duct tape. The team that builds the tallest structure with their balloons and tape in the time given wins. Discuss how competition can encourage creativity, and the importance of flexibility and communication during this task.

Don't forget!

Fall 2011 funding requests for chartered student organizations are due on Friday, March 4, by 5pm. http://smu.edu/studentsenate/funding/SemesterBudgetInformation.asp
