The Doctor of Ministry at Singapore

SMU | PERKINS
SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Higher learning. Real experience. Vital ministry.

Your Higher Calling is Calling. Again.

DMin at Dallas and Singapore

Perkins School of the Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, USA, and Trinity Theological College of Singapore will begin the third year of the DMin program at Trinity in July 2012.

The DMin provides the opportunity to enhance pastoral practice, while helping Christian leaders integrate understanding and skills into a theologically reflective practice of ministry. Perkins offers emphasis in six areas:

- Evangelism
- Pastoral Leadership
- Preaching and Worship
- Missional Church Studies
- Spiritual Formation
- Urban Ministry

The first two-week session will be conducted at Trinity July 23-August 3, 2012. Entering students will travel to the United States once to Perkins in Dallas in January 2013 and may complete the degree as early as May 2014 with courses at Trinity and through distance education.

Admission Requirements

- Professional leadership responsibilities in a ministry setting.
- An approved MDiv degree or equivalent with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0/4.0.
- Experience and competence in ministry, normally within a minimum of three years of fulltime experience following completion of the MDiv.
- Essays addressing the proposed area for study.

Summer 2012 Deadline to Apply

Priority consideration for application - May 1, 2012
Final deadline for application completion - June 11, 2012

- Undergraduate/graduate transcripts
- Letters of Recommendation
- Essays
- US $50 Application Fee (waived for 2012)
- Result of TOEFL, if applicable

Information Session

Information sessions will be conducted in New Delhi, Penang, Kuala Lumpur and Singapore in early May. For more information visit: http://www.smu.edu/Perkins/FacultyAcademics/degrees/dmin/InfoSessionSingapore.
To apply for the DMin program an application and reference form may be downloaded at: smu.edu/perkins/dmin

Tuition and Fees

Perkins Grants for partial tuition are available for incoming students entering the Singapore Program in July 2012 for the 2012-2013 Academic Year.

- $755 (tuition) $98.50 (fees) per hour - 2012 rates (Fees are not assessed for January and Summer)

These costs do not include books, travel, lodging, visa costs, and other expenses.

Contact Information

Rev. Gary B. MacDonald
Director, Advanced Ministerial Studies
gmacdona@smu.edu
1-214-768-3161
Fax: 1-214-768-2117