PART 8: DIRECTORY OF PRINCIPAL SUPPLIERS ....... 209
The following bibliographic resource does not provide exhaustive coverage of all areas of Wesleyan and Methodist scholarship. This 6th edition presents a select list of resources for students and instructors of seminary-level courses in United Methodist history, doctrine and polity. The resource also presents a minimum suggested standard for libraries to support such courses.

In addition to standard texts, past and present, emphasis has been placed on selecting contemporary critical interpretations in print and online. Following the format of earlier editions the materials in this revision are arranged topically. For additional resources, including topics and materials not included in this edition, please consult Christopher J. Anderson and Kenneth E. Rowe's 5th revised edition of United Methodist Studies: Basic Bibliographies.

The compiler is in debt to Kenneth E. Rowe for his work on earlier editions of the text. Rex Matthews, Kevin Newburg, and Robert J. Williams reviewed a draft of the text and assisted with additional recommendations. Luther Oconer assisted with the cover design of this resource. Any mistakes or omissions are solely the responsibility of the editor. Corrections, additions and deletions for the next edition of this bibliography are welcomed and should be sent to: Christopher J. Anderson, Head of Special Collections, Archives, and Methodist Librarian, United Methodist Archives and History Center, Drew University, 36 Madison Avenue, Madison, New Jersey, USA 07940. Office: 973-408-3910 or E-mail: cjanders@drew.edu.

CIEMAL (Consejo de Iglesias Evangélicas Metodistas de América Latino/Council of Evangelical Methodist Churches in Latin America)

In 1969, the UMC's conferences in Latin America become autonomous churches. At the same time, they organized themselves into this regional council together with Methodist Churches in Mexico and Cuba.

Consultation on Church Union (COCU) 1962-2002

A consultation on church union among nine churches in the USA begun in 1962. An agreed statement on Covenanting rather than organic merger, adopted in 1988, was affirmed by the UMC General Conference in 1996.

Consultation on Church Union. Churches in Covenant Communion. Princeton, NJ: COCU, 1989. Proposed plan of church unity in which member churches accept eight "elements" which include a common apostolic faith, recognition of members in one baptism, and mutual recognition and reconciliation of the ordained ministry. Member churches would retain their own denominational names, identity, church governments, liturgy, and patterns of ministerial training and placement. Churches Uniting in Christ, founded in 2002, is both an outgrowth and successor to the Consultation on Church Union.
