

SMU

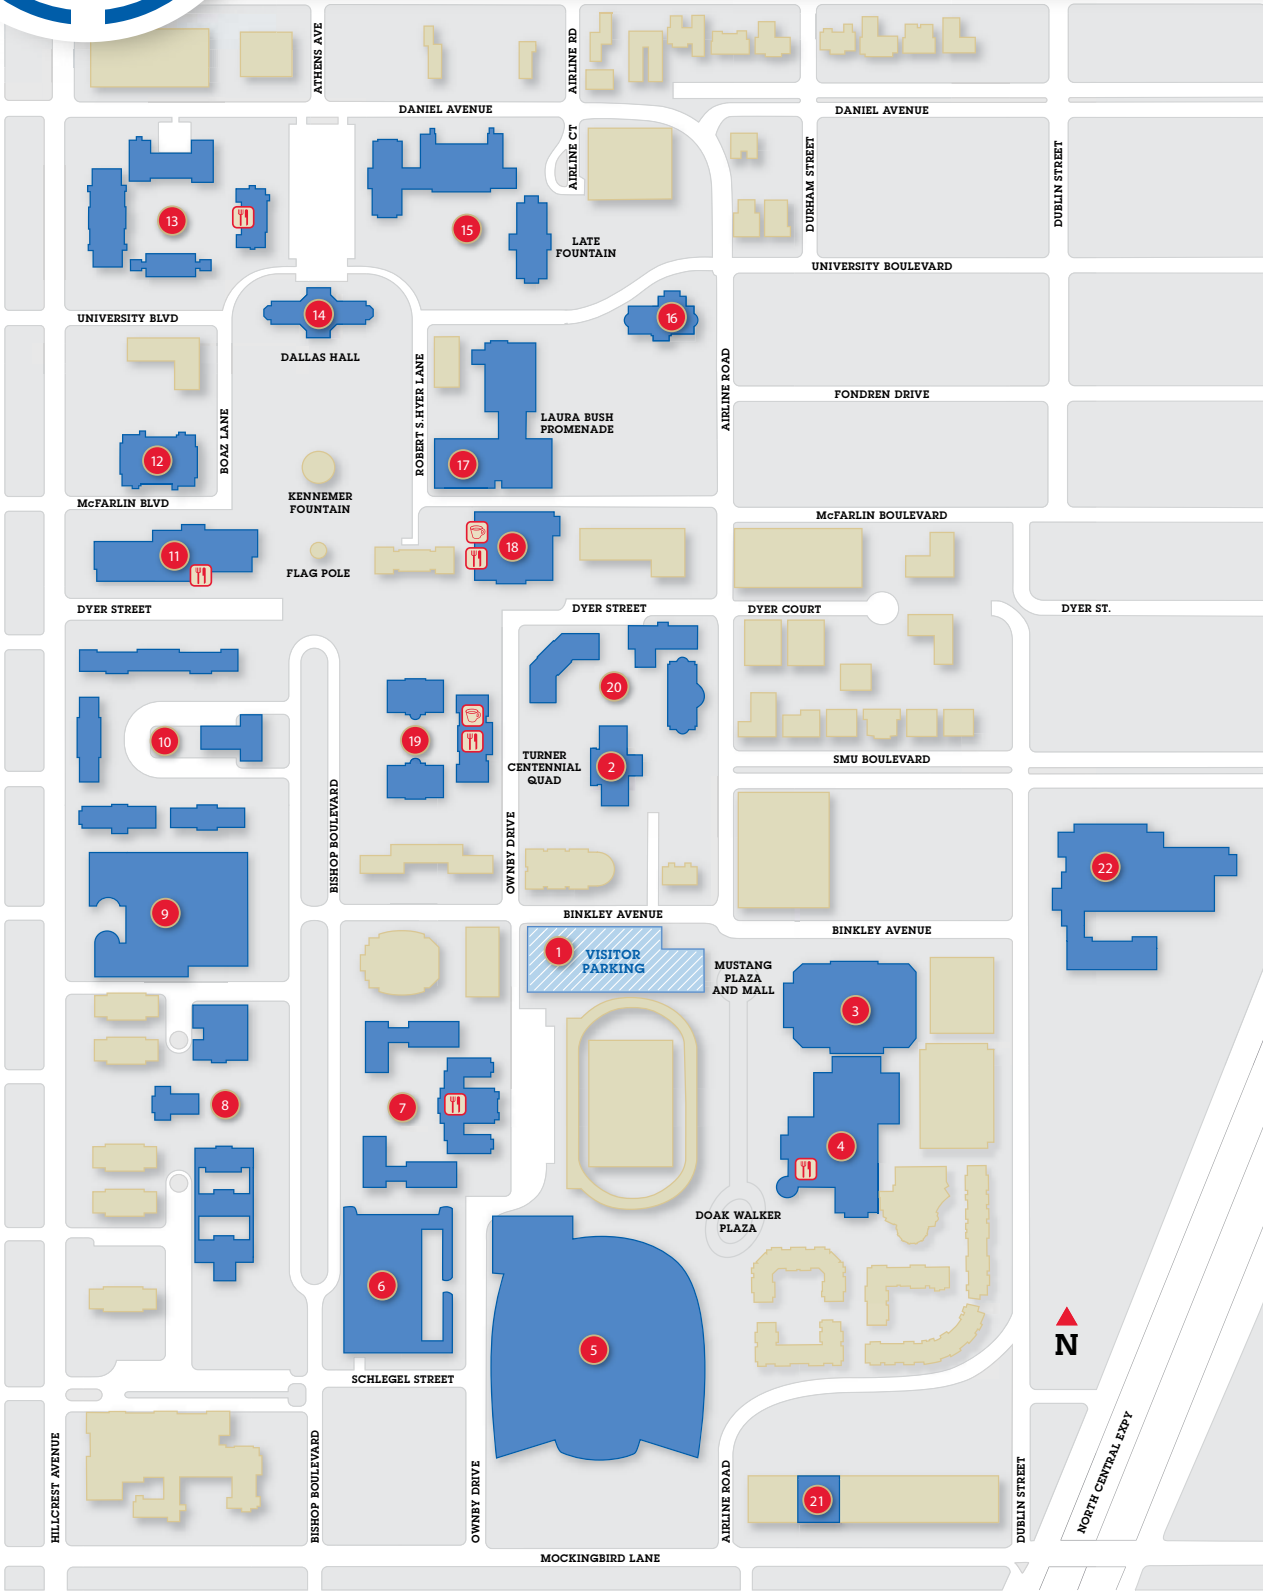

CAMPUS WALKING MAP

SEE for YOURSELF

SMU's beautiful campus has been a hallmark of the University since it opened nearly 100 years ago. Classic architecture and historically significant buildings, as well as the latest in environmental design, add to the experience. Tree-lined walks, colorful flowers, open green spaces and outdoor art make strolling through the quad a pleasant experience. Explore one of the most beautiful urban campuses in the country.

1 START HERE

Visitor parking is available in Binkley Parking Garage at the corner of SMU Boulevard and Airline Road.

2 LAURA LEE BLANTON STUDENT SERVICES BUILDING

is a great place to start your tour and enjoy the beautiful view of the eastern entrance to campus. The Blanton Building houses Enrollment Services, including Undergraduate, Transfer and International Admission, Financial Aid and the Bursar's Office. Also in Blanton are the offices for SMU-in-Taos and SMU Abroad. Near the Blanton Building are the R. Gerald Turner Centennial Quadrangle, which includes the Cooper Centennial Fountain, the Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering complex and the Crain Family Centennial Promenade.

3 MOODY COLISEUM

is east of the Mustang Plaza and Mall, where you will see the Mustangs sculpture. Moody Coliseum is home to Mustang basketball and volleyball. Beyond the coliseum is the Crum Basketball Center practice facility. SMU competes in Conference USA with 17 Division I sports.

4 DEDMAN CENTER for LIFETIME SPORTS

offers the latest trends in health and fitness. The center includes climbing walls, basketball, racquetball and indoor soccer courts, recreation pool, dance/aerobic/cycling rooms, weight room and fitness area, and a café.

5 GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

is near the statue of 1948 Heisman Trophy-winner Doak Walker. Before home football games, students, alumni, faculty and the community tailgate nearby on The Boulevard. Ford Stadium also is home to the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center (A-LEC), where students can develop skills for academic success.

6 MEADOWS MUSEUM

houses one of the finest and most comprehensive collections of Spanish art outside Spain. Its exterior features Santiago Calatrava's site-specific sculpture, Wave. The museum offers docent tours and lectures and is open Tuesday through Sunday.

7 SOUTH QUAD

features several first-year residence halls, including McElvaney, the home of Mac's Place, one of the main dining services on campus. SMU residence halls feature wireless connectivity and a variety of room types, bathroom styles and community areas.

8 PERKINS SCHOOL of THEOLOGY is an internationally recognized seminary of The United Methodist Church. The world-renowned Bridwell Library has a collection of ancient biblical texts and Bibles and offers theological resources for pastors and scholars unrivaled in the southwestern United States. Perkins Chapel hosts weekly worship services and is one of the most popular places in Dallas to get married.

9 MEADOWS SCHOOL of THE ARTS is recognized as one of the premier arts schools in the nation and offers studies in the visual, performing and communication arts. Hamon Arts Library contains more than 130,000 items and provides access to additional online arts resources. Temerlin Advertising Institute boasts SMU's award-winning student advertising team, Praxis. Three theatres – the Bob Hope, the Greer Garson and the Margo Jones – are located here.

10 NORTH QUAD has more of the University's residence halls, including Shuttles; Virginia-Snider honors hall; and Mary Hay and Peyton fine arts communities. Memorial Health Center, which is staffed by physicians, nurses, pharmacists and laboratory and X-ray technicians, also is located here.

11 UMPHREY LEE CENTER houses the Belo Journalism Complex with television and radio studios, computer labs and editing suites. SMU-TV broadcasts from the studio and includes "The Daily Update," a streaming news show written and produced by students. On the lower level of Umphrey Lee is Real Food on Campus (RFoC), the main dining hall.

12 McFARLIN AUDITORIUM hosts University academic events, touring shows and the Tate Lecture Series, which brings to campus some of the world's most interesting and provocative speakers, such as former presidents, commentators, futurists and artistic legends. The Tate Series annually returns almost $1 million to the University and benefits student scholarships.

13 DEDMAN SCHOOL of LAW ranks No. 1 among all law schools with Fortune 50 CEOs. It ranks No. 2 on Forbes' list, behind only Harvard Law School. SMU law graduates passed the state bar at a rate of 94% on their first sitting, compared to 80% statewide. Qualified SMU undergraduates can earn early acceptance to Dedman Law through the Pre-Law Scholars program. The Underwood Law Library is the largest private law library in the Southwest.

14 DALLAS HALL is home to Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences and one of 10

SMU buildings listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Opened in 1915, it symbolizes SMU's commitment to academic excellence. Inside, look up at the beautiful Rotunda and down at the University seal. Because Dallas Hall was built on a hill, SMU was nicknamed "The Hilltop."

15 SCIENCE QUAD, east of Dallas Hall, provides classrooms, labs and research facilities.

The Pre-medical Studies Center also is located here. Nearby buildings are Heroy Science Hall and Fondren Science Building.

16 ANNETTE CALDWELL SIMMONS HALL is home to Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development and was awarded Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold-certification.

17 FONDREN LIBRARY CENTER greets visitors with the Laura Bush Promenade, a walkway and garden made possible by a gift to SMU from President George W. Bush in honor of his wife and SMU alumna Laura Bush's contributions to the advancement of libraries and literacy. During the school year, Fondren Library is open daily (including 24 hours a day, five days a week). The Science Information Center, a resource for engineering, is adjacent to Fondren

Library. SMU's nine libraries have more than three million volumes. The DeGolyer Library houses special collections, including Texas Instruments and JCPenney archives and Stanley Marcus' personal papers.

18 HUGHES-TRIGG STUDENT CENTER houses Centennial Hall, an interactive exhibition for all ages telling the story of SMU. Displays feature profiles of current students and faculty, a

100-year timeline and an SMU historic trivia game you can play with friends. Hughes-Trigg has a food court on the lower level, with Subway, Chick-fil-A, Pizza Hut, and Café 100, a popular campus hangout. The hub for SMU's 200 student clubs and organizations, Hughes-Trigg also houses a post office, ticket office, M Lounge video game center, convenience store, computer store, barber shop, career center and copy center, as well as meeting rooms and key student services. The HEGI Family Career Development Center offers career counseling and assessment and sponsors an active campus job-listing program.

19 COX SCHOOL of BUSINESS is housed in Fincher, Maguire and Crow buildings, as well as Collins Executive Education Center. A Business Library and Einstein Bros. Bagels are located in the basement of Fincher. Cox students have access to professional and academic advisors and the exclusive Cox Career Counseling Center. All student services are accessible in the Maguire building, where undergraduate business classes are taught.

The Cox B.B.A. program is ranked No. 30 in the U.S. by Bloomberg Businessweek. Cox is the only business school in the southwest with three M.B.A. programs ranked in the top 20 by leading publications such as Bloomberg Businessweek and The Economist.

20 BOBBY B. LYLE SCHOOL of ENGINEERING prepares graduates for success in technology, industry and public service. Lyle School graduates are leaders and creative thinkers prepared to take on the most profound challenges confronting society and the planet. The percentage of women in engineering at SMU is 50 percent higher than the national average, and Lyle is blazing its way toward achieving its goal of gender parity.

The Junkins and Embrey buildings and Caruth Hall are some of the most technologically advanced on any college campus. Embrey and Caruth were awarded LEED Gold-certification.

21 SMU BOOKSTORE is a Barnes and Noble bookstore, located one block south of Doak Walker Plaza at Mockingbird Lane and Airline Road. It sells textbooks and great spirit items and has a café.

22 The GEORGE W. BUSH PRESIDENTIAL CENTER featuring a library, museum and institute, is scheduled to open on this site in 2013. The new Residential Commons Complex, set to open in 2014, is under construction nearby.

THANK YOU for VISITING SMU!

We hope you enjoyed your time on campus. Come and see us again for a formal guided campus and residence hall tour and information session. To schedule a visit, please call 214-768-0496.

A MATCH made in TEXAS

SMU and Dallas are a great combination. SMU's 237-acre, tree-lined campus combining classic Georgian architecture, the latest in green building design and outdoor art melds well with Dallas' progressive image and commitment to the arts, culture and business. At SMU, students experience a world-class university in a truly international city.

SMU SPIRIT AND TRADITIONS

- SMU's official school colors are Harvard Crimson and Yale Blue
- SMU competes in 17 NCAA Division I sports
- SMU will join the BIG EAST conference in 2013
- SMU has ranked as the top school in its conference for 11 of the last 14 years in the Directors' Cup Division I overall athletic rankings
- The SMU Mustang football team has appeared in three consecutive bowl games in as many years, winning two and capping one of the most dramatic comebacks in college football history
 - Peruna, a black Shetland pony, is the symbol of Mustang spirit
 - Mustangs and their fans don't tailgate; they Boulevard, when they gather on The Boulevard for pregame picnics and festivities

FACTS

- SMU was founded in 1911 and opened in 1915
- Like other top universities such as Duke, Emory and Vanderbilt, SMU was founded by The United Methodist Church to promote higher education and freedom of inquiry

SMU BY THE NUMBERS

- 6,221 enrolled undergraduates
- No. 2 in the country for most accessible professors in The Princeton Review
- No. 7 in the country for best career services in The Princeton Review
- 11:1 student-faculty ratio
- 100 majors complemented by 75 minors and nationally recognized graduate programs
- Nearly half of SMU undergraduates pursue more than one course of study
- One in three SMU undergraduates studies abroad
- 120,000 alumni worldwide, 40,000 in the DFW region

- 80% of first-year students receive scholarships and/or need-based aid
- 52% women, 48% men among undergraduates
- 27% ethnic diversity among first-year students
- 54% of first-year students come from states outside Texas. Students come from all 50 states and nearly 90 countries
- 200 student organizations

THE BIG PICTURE

- Dallas is No. 3 in the nation in the number of Fortune 500 corporate headquarters
- Dallas is the No. 3 best city for job prospects for new college graduates according to Bloomberg Businessweek

- Dallas is No. 8 in Forbes' 25-city roundup of the best places for business and careers. Dallas tops the list's five Texas cities
- Dallas has the nation's largest urban arts district
- Dallas is the fourth-largest metropolitan area
- Dallas is the fifth-largest media market
- White Rock Lake, just a few miles from campus, and the Katy Trail, adjacent to campus, offer opportunities for outdoor activities and exercise
- Some of the country's best shopping, dining and entertainment is right here in culturally diverse Dallas
- Abundant sunshine and warm weather make Dallas a year-round outdoor city

CAMPUS VISITORS

- Some of the world's most interesting and provocative people come to campus for master classes, lectures and discussions through the Tate Lecture Series, John Goodwin Tower Center for Political Studies and George W. Bush Presidential Center
- Recent speakers and visitors have included Katie Couric, Condoleezza Rice, Will Ferrell, Michael Lewis, Sanjay Gupta and William Bennett

CONTACT INFORMATION

Undergraduate Admission

smu.edu/admission
214-768-2058 or 1-800-323-0672

General Information

smu.edu
214-768-2000

Accounting	English with Creative Writing Specialization	Medieval Studies
Advertising (General, Creative, Media)	Environmental Chemistry	Music
Anthropology	Environmental Engineering	Music Composition
Applied Physiology and Sport Management	Environmental Science	Music Education with Texas Teacher Certification
Art	Environmental Science with Engineering Emphasis	Music Performance
Art History	Environmental Studies	Music Therapy
Biochemistry	Ethnic Studies (African/African-American, Mexican-American)	Philosophy
Biological Sciences	Film and Media Arts	Physics
Biomedical Research	Finance	Political Science
Chemistry	Finance with Alternative Asset Management Specialization	Pre-Law
Civil Engineering	Financial Consulting	Pre-Med
Communication Studies	General Business	Pre-Physical Therapy
Computer Engineering	Geology	Psychology
Computer Science	Geophysics	Public Policy
Computer Science with Bioinformatics, Game Development, Research or Security Specializations	History	Public Relations and Strategic Communications
Creative Computing	Human Rights	Real Estate Finance
Dance	Individualized Studies in the Liberal Arts	Religious Studies
Economics	International Studies	Resource Geology
Economics with Finance Applications Specialization	Journalism	Risk Management and Insurance
Economics with Systems Analysis Specialization	Latin American and Iberian Studies	Sociology
Education (Teacher Certification)	Management	Statistical Science
Electrical Engineering	Management Science	Theatre (Acting, Theatre Studies)
Electrical Engineering with Biomedical, Computer Engineering or Engineering Leadership Specializations	Marketing	World Languages and Literatures (French, German, Italian Area Studies, Spanish)
Engineering	Markets and Culture
English	Mathematics	SMU's undergraduate curriculum is complemented by nationally recognized graduate programs.
	Mechanical Engineering
	Mechanical Engineering with Engineering Management and Entrepreneurship or Manufacturing Specializations	To explore even more areas of study, visit smu.edu/majors .

SMU®

