

MEGAN HINRICHSEN WINS P.E.O. SCHOLAR AWARD

Megan Bond Hinrichsen, a Ph.D. student in anthropology at Southern Methodist University, is one of 85 doctoral students nationwide selected to receive a $15,000 Scholar Award from the P.E.O. Sisterhood. She was sponsored by Chapter BC of Dallas, TX.

Megan is the daughter of Wayne and Mary Ellen Bond of Nazareth, PA. She is a 2008 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She is pursuing her doctorate at Southern Methodist University where she was the recipient of a Fulbright scholarship, among other honors.

The P.E.O. Scholar Awards (PSA) was established in 1991 to provide substantial merit-based awards for women of the United States and Canada who are pursuing a doctoral level degree at an accredited college or university.

The P.E.O. Sisterhood, founded January 21, 1869, at Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, is a philanthropic educational organization interested in bringing increased opportunities for higher education to women. There are approximately 6,000 local chapters in the United States and Canada with nearly a quarter of a million active members.
