Alicia Smiley ’17 is a finalist at the 2016 Associated Collegiate Press National Convention

Alicia Smiley’s, SMU ’17, Engaged Learning Fellowship involves creating a digital book titled The Annual Report: an Editor's Guide to Creating Yearbooks, with guidance from the Associated Collegiate Press, which will serve as the framework for SMU’s 2017 Rotunda yearbook.

Smiley presents her Pacemaker award plaque at the 2016 Associated Collegiate Press (ACP) national convention in Washington, D.C. The 2015 SMU Rotunda was a finalist for this prestigious national recognition. The 2016 Rotunda won in the "Best of Show" category. The ACP convention is the annual gathering of college journalists from around the country, where students attend workshops to improve their publications and network with professionals.
