UNIVERSITY CURRICULUM EQUIVALENCIES FOR COLLIN COLLEGE

AN INTRODUCTION FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

SMU welcomes transfer students from Collin College! Transfers comprise a large and important component of our total student body and their diverse academic backgrounds enrich the educational experience for all students. SMU's Office of Transfer and Transition Services assists prospective transfer students with planning programs of study that are compatible with SMU degree requirements.

Please use this guide to learn more about an SMU degree and the transferable credits you can earn at Collin College to start you on your way.

Careful review of these equivalencies should facilitate a seamless transfer to the University and minimize the likelihood of loss of credits in the process.

AN UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE

An SMU degree is comprised of:
1) courses in your major 2) courses that fulfill the University Curriculum requirements (which may also count for your major and/or minor) and 3) elective courses (which may be used towards a second major or minor).

By carefully using the Collin College Equivalency Guide found at smu.edu/transfer/creditguide.asp when choosing courses, all of your work should transfer to SMU and fall into one of these three categories.

FOR MORE INFORMATION about transferring to SMU, please go to smu.edu/admission or call 214-768-3417.

THE UNIVERSITY CURRICULUM*

At SMU, all undergraduates complete a program of study called the University Curriculum (UC), which emphasizes the values of a liberal education – learning to read, write and think critically while acquiring a basic understanding of human society.

The UC consists of three main components:

FOUNDATIONS teach you how to read and write critically, develop basic quantitative reasoning skills, introduce the concepts of life-long personal responsibility and wellness, and explore how different academic disciplines define and create knowledge.

PILLARS are a constellation of five two-course sequences that introduce students to the ways in which intellectual traditions organize and construct knowledge. Each Pillars requirement includes an introductory course that covers origins, critical analysis and important issues, and a second course that is more focused or advanced in nature.

CAPSTONE is a culmination of your undergraduate career, requiring you to synthesize and integrate work within a chosen area of study or take an upper-level course that emphasizes an inter- or multi-disciplinary way of knowing. Providing you with an opportunity for reflection and sustained focus, the Capstone can take the form of a course, a departmental or honors thesis, a senior project, a senior performance, an interdisciplinary project, or an internship combined with a paper that requires you to analyze, report on, and reflect upon your experience.

In addition to the above courses, all students on the UC must demonstrate certain PROFICIENCIES AND EXPERIENCES (P&Es) which may be met through credit-bearing course work or approved, non-credit activities that have been identified as meeting that requirement.

Beginning in spring 2013 for transfer students with fewer than 30 transferable hours, or fall 2014 for transfer students with more than 30 transferable hours, all undergraduate transfer students will complete the requirements of the UC, which replaces the General Education Curriculum (GEC). Students who transfer prior to these dates may elect to complete the UC.*

UC PROTOCOLS

Please keep in mind the following policies and information about the UC when planning your program of study at Collin College:

- UC requirements can be met through any part of your undergraduate career, including work in the major or minor, elective courses and approved activities. The number of courses and/or credit hours required to complete the UC will vary according to your academic background, preparation, major, curricular and co-curricular choices.
- Most second-level Pillars courses, the Ways of Knowing course and Capstone must be taken at SMU, but many individual SMU courses could satisfy two different second-level Pillars requirements and P&Es.
- Courses from Collin College approved for the UC have been carefully vetted. Courses not listed as approved must demonstrate specific student learning outcomes (SLOs) to satisfy requirements. A list of SLOs is found at smu.edu/gened/ucexp.asp.
- Credit earned by examination such as AP or IB credit may only satisfy Foundations, level one Pillars and the P&Es Second Language Requirement. A listing of AP/IB credit is located at smu.edu/registrar/credit_by_examination.asp.
- Students must be continuously enrolled in the appropriate Discernment and Discourse course each term until completion of the Foundations requirement.
- Keep syllabi from all of your transfer courses. You may need them to determine transfer applicability once you arrive at SMU.

THE UNIVERSITY CURRICULUM

The following outline represents Collin College courses which satisfy requirements of SMU's University Curriculum. All courses listed are considered comparable to SMU courses and thus are transferable to SMU. Transfer courses are counted in the Transfer GPA. Grades below C- are used in this GPA calculation, but credit hours are not awarded and the courses are not accepted for transfer. For a complete listing of Collin College courses which receive transfer credit at SMU and other transfer policies, please go to smu.edu/transfer/creditguide.asp.

CAPSTONE

This requirement must be fulfilled at SMU.

PROFICIENCIES AND EXPERIENCES (P&Es)

P&Es are not specific courses but instead demonstrate that students have developed and refined writing, quantitative reasoning, oral communication, and information literacy skills beyond the introductory level. The UC also encourages all undergraduates to apply curricular knowledge to the diverse, global communities in which they will live and work. Unless indicated below, transfer credit does not automatically satisfy P&Es. If you believe a transfer course meets the SLOs for a particular P&E, you may petition the office of the UC. SLOs may be found at smu.edu/gened/ucexp.asp.

- Writing
- Quantitative Reasoning - ECON 2302 or PHIL 2302
- Information Literacy
- Oral Communication - Introductory Speech courses
- Community Engagement
- Global Engagement
- Human Diversity
- Second Language - satisfied by 1) transferring two terms of college courses in the same world language, 2) by placing out of four terms of a world language by taking an SMU placement test or through AP or IB credit, or 3) being literate in a native language other than English.

* To receive AP credit for the Written English requirement, students must score a 4 or 5 on the AP English Language or Literature test. A writing-intensive course with a research component may be petitioned to satisfy the third D&D course, DISC 1313.

 These courses are acceptable in transfer only to count toward fulfillment of the Level 1 requirement.
