

Thank you for your advanced registration for an evening with Anne Lamott on Monday, November 13, sponsored by Perkins School of Theology, to be held in McFarlin Auditorium on SMU's campus. Response to this event has been overwhelming, and we have now closed advanced registration. Only those with a printed copy of the email confirmation for their completed, advanced registration will be admitted before 7:20 pm. Open seating will then continue until the auditorium is full.

To prepare for this event, please read carefully through this entire email, which gives detailed, important information from printing your registration receipt to parking, from seating to the book signing.

If you made reservations for multiple people, please share this email with them as well, and bring the email confirmation of your order that specifies the number of people you registered. Be sure that everyone you registered is in your party when you go into the auditorium; anyone without a receipt will be not seated before 7:20 pm.

Transportation options

We encourage one of the following three options for your own convenience and the reduction of congestion and traffic:

- Carpooling
- Taking public transportation to Mockingbird Station where you can catch the Mustang Express (Routes 768) shuttle to SMU. For more information on this option, see additional information about DART and the Mustang Express following this letter.

- Travel by uber/taxi/lyft. Use this link for the drop off site.

Parking

For those who drive, you may park on Bishop Boulevard (on the left-hand side) or in any AUP (All University Parking) lots or garages listed below. Likewise, any metered visitor parking is available, though those spots will require payment. Parking for an SMU event is not available in Snider Plaza or the residential neighborhoods adjacent to campus.

Consult the two parking maps attached to this email as well as the following google links for the various parking options:

- Daniel Parking Center, 3330 Daniel Ave.: <http://bit.ly/2zaLRrb>
- Q Lot, North side of Dallas Hall, 3225 Daniel Ave.: <http://bit.ly/2Acim8c>
- Airline Parking Center, 6505 Airline Ct.: <http://bit.ly/2hxC1HV>
- Overflow R Lot: <http://bit.ly/2yoQAIs>
- Bishop Blvd: <http://bit.ly/2iYVDZr> Park only on the left-hand side of the street closest to the median
- Meadows Parking Center, 5900 Bishop Blvd: <http://bit.ly/2ypqoO4>

Entrance and Seating

Doors to the McFarlin Auditorium lobby will open at 6:30 pm. Between 6:30-7:20 pm, those with an advanced registration email confirmation will be able to be seated. With the exception of the reserved seating section from Row K to the front, seating is open and available on a first come, first served basis. At 7:20 pm, any remaining available seats will be open for anyone who does not have the requested email confirmation of advanced registration.

No food or drink will be allowed inside the auditorium; no food or drink will be available for sale.

During the presentation

All electronic devices must be turned off, and no photography or recording is allowed during the presentation. Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated.

Q & A Time

If you have a question to submit for Anne Lamott to respond to during the Q & A portion of the evening, email it to popelevison@smu.edu. Questions related to her newest book, Hallelujah Anyway: Rediscovering Mercy, the focus of the evening's presentation, will be given preference.

Book Signing

For those who want her signature on their copy of Hallelujah Anyway: Rediscovering Mercy, Anne Lamott will be available on the mezzanine level immediately following her lecture to sign one copy per patron. No personalization on the book is possible, only Lamott's signature. The SMU Bookstore will have copies of Hallelujah Anyway available for purchase in the McFarlin Lobby before and after the lecture.

No photographs or conversations with Anne Lamott will be allowed during the book signing, and no additional books by Lamott will be signed.

If you have other questions that are not answered in the above information, email us at theoexternalprograms@smu.edu or call our office at 214-768-2390. We will respond as quickly as possible.

The Perkins Office of External Programs is pleased to offer this free lecture to the community in an effort to fulfill the seminary's task of theological education to the glory of God. We are thrilled that you have registered to take part in this event!

Regards,

Priscilla Pope-Levison

DART is an easy green way to get to SMU and avoid all the gas prices, traffic and congestion in the area. DART day passes are just $5.00 and a trip-planning tool is available on their website (www.dart.org) to help you plan your trip to Mockingbird Station.

Once at Mockingbird Station use the free SMU Express Shuttle 768

<http://www.dart.org/riding/mustangexpress.asp> picks up from the bus loading area there, every 15 minutes and drops off on the north end of Bishop Blvd at SMU or on Binkley Ave, just a few yards away from many popular SMU destinations. All of the SMU Express 768 stops are referenced as small red bus icons on the attached campus map.

The 743 Museum Shuttle <http://www.dart.org/rideralerts/fullra.asp?id=1731> is another option if plans include a visit to the Meadows Museum or Bush Presidential Center locations. The shuttle runs every 20 minutes when the museums are open and stops are conveniently located near the buildings.

Bus Route 521 is a great way to get to campus from City Place areas or Uptown

- Two buses on route until 9am daily. After 9am one bus runs every hour on the 45 minute of the hour.
- On Saturday there is only southbound service route to City Place.
- Visit 521 Information Page for maps and details.

DART Biketrans commuting combines the cost-effectiveness of public transit with the health benefits of cycling. It is an earth-friendly alternative to commuting in a single-occupancy vehicle.
