

In joining the faculty at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in January, 1998, Bill Bryan returned to the land his great great great great grandmother Daniel farmed in the 1840's.

As associate pastor and pastor in the North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, he has served county seat, suburban, inner city, and regional churches for twenty-one years.

Bill graduated from Rice University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history in 1974 and Perkins School of Theology with a Master of Theology degree in 1977 and a Doctor of Ministry degree in 1986.

Bill is married to Corinne who is a CPA. Their children are Catherine Tunks who is a Licensed Master Social Worker, and Christopher who is employed as a videographer at the University of North Texas.

In 2015 Bill and Corinne are celebrating the growth of grandson Jeremy Bryan Tunks and Bill's promotion to Associate Dean for Student Affairs at Perkins.
