

Bianca Anderson, a Dallas native, is a seasoned educator and trainer, as well as a published writer and racial justice advocate who works to dismantle racial inequities in education both nationally and internationally. In addition to her many years of experience as an elementary and middle school teacher, teacher coach and curriculum developer, she also served as the middle school Equity and Inclusion Coordinator at the Greenhill School. Bianca is currently the Dallas-Fort Worth Director of Border Crossers, a nonprofit that equips and empowers educators to disrupt systems of racism in education.