

CHANGING MINDS

SMU Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development

David J. Chard

Leon Simmons Endowed Dean
SMU's Annette Caldwell Simmons
School of Education and Human Development

and the

Department of Dispute Resolution and Counseling

cordially invite you to a Sampling Simmons Event

"Gender, Intimacy and Power: The Bedroom Turned Inside Out"

Relationships, erotic and otherwise, have often been a major complication in our daily lives. This program will consider the paradoxical nature of our 21st century relationships in light of shifting gender roles, contemporary sexual realities, and the eternal mystery of control and influence.

featuring

Hal Barkley, Ph.D.

Clinical Associate Professor and Department Chair

Wednesday, April 15, 2015
6:30 p.m. Reception | 7 p.m. Remarks

Southern Methodist University
Annette Caldwell Simmons Hall
3101 University Boulevard
Dallas, Texas 75205

Please reply by Thursday, April 9, to smu.edu/reply/counseling.

For more information, please contact Patti Addington at 217-768-4844.

Business Attire | Complimentary Valet Parking

SMU

ANNETTE CALDWELL SIMMONS
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
& HUMAN DEVELOPMENT