

SMU MBBI Meeting

Mediators Beyond Borders International is the ONLY student organization in the DRCM Program...

Join us for our April meeting with guest speaker

SMU DRCM Alumnus Josh Hart

Josh Hart is a recent graduate of the SMU's Master program in Dispute Resolution. He currently serves as the president of Red Panda ADR, a conflict consultant company, located in Plano. After finishing school, the marketing began to promote itself. Luckily the experience he has gained in his years in media has helped him educate others on the benefits of conflict resolution.

Josh Hart spent the last decade at iHeart Media, working on the air for the stations like 102.9 NOW and 102.1 THE EDGE, as a co-host and producer. He has spent a lot of time solving disputes between talent and management. He has seen things that would make most HR personnel pull their hair out, and would love to share any of those stories with you.
