University Conduct Review Process

Incident Occurs

Report is written
Usually by RA, RCD, or Police
But can be other student/staff

Investigation
if needed

No action taken

Student is charged with violation(s) of Code of Conduct

SCCS sends student a letter, notifying them of a hearing and alleged violations

7 business days

Hearing

University Conduct Board Hearing *serious or special circumstances

Conduct Officer Hearing

Board determines if the student is responsible or not responsible

Found “not responsible”

Sanctions are assessed

Students may appeal to the University Conduct Council

Conduct Officer determines if the student is responsible or not responsible

Found “Responsible”

University Conduct Council sends final recommendation to the Vice President for Student Affairs for review

Found “not responsible”