S.M.U. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

All former students of Southern Methodist University, whether graduated or not, and members of the faculty or administrative staff of the University are considered members of the Alumni Association. The Mustang, published by the association, is mailed free of charge to members upon request.

LECTURES AND PROGRAMS

In addition to the plays, performances, concerts, and discussions sponsored by student organizations, various programs of lectures and entertainments are presented by the University. These include:

The Community Course, a series of programs by visiting lecturers and artists, is given to the students without cost. The Jose Limon Dancers, Salzburg Marionettes, Senator Paul Douglas, Frederic Prokofiev, Salvador Dali, The First Piano Quartet, Olin Downes and Leonard Eisner are listed for the 1951-52 season.

The Fondren Lectures, The Peyton Lectures and The Jackson Lectures are delivered in February each year during Ministers' Week by three outstanding leaders. This program is arranged through the Perkins School of Theology.

Other programs are arranged by the Faculty Committee on Public Lectures.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

Matriculation in the University is a declaration of acceptance of all University rules and regulations.

Conduct.—It is the purpose of the University authorities to maintain a high standard both of scholarship and of character. A student whose conduct or influence is found to be detrimental to the best interests of the student body may be requested to withdraw; in cases of flagrant misconduct or continued violation of rules and regulations, the penalty will be suspension or expulsion.

The faculty invites the hearty cooperation of the Students' Association in the maintenance of high standards and, as far as practicable, relies upon student sentiment and student self-government for the enforcement of good conduct. All the actions of this Association are subject to review by the Committee on Discipline appointed by the University faculty. The Dean of Students and Dean of Women are the university officials charged with the administration and enforcement of policies established by this Committee.

Student Life

Drinking of intoxicating liquors, gambling, lying, dishonesty, immoral conduct, and any other behavior unforeseen or desconized to a student of Southern Methodist University, render the subject subject to disciplinary action. Each student agrees to leave the University and University neighborhood quietly and immediately when directed to do so by a constituted disciplinary authority of the University.

Church Attendance.—All students are expected to attend divine worship at least once each Sunday in the church of their choice.

Examinations.—No exemptions are granted from examinations, and no examinations will be given in advance. Postponed examinations are provided for only on written request to the dean of the school concerned.

Federations and Societies.—Federations and societies are required to maintain a C average. A fraternity or society which falls below the average may hold no initiation until the average has been met. Individual students must maintain a satisfactory grade average set by the Faculty Committee on Student Activities and Organizations before they may be initiated.

Loss of Personal Property.—The University is not responsible for the loss of personal property belonging to students in any building owned by the University, whether the loss results from theft, fire, or unknown cause.

Physical Education.—All freshmen and sophomores, whatever their purpose in entering the University, are required to take physical education and must present four hours credit in these courses to fulfill graduation requirements. Transfer students of regular standing who have no physical education credit may be graduated with a minimum of two hours credit in physical education. Grade-points are assigned to physical education credit on the same basis as in other departments of the University. Students not able to participate in the regular physical education program because of some physical defect will be assigned to a special class.

Reports.—For all students in the University are mailed to parents and guardians at the end of each semester. Adult students may receive their reports if a request is made in writing to the Registrar.

Student Activities and Organizations.—All student organizations are under the supervision of the Faculty Committee on Student Activities and Organizations. Student groups may not organize before obtaining permission from this Committee. No organization is permitted to plan a trip or a function without first consulting.
