UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

Matriculation in the University is a declaration of acceptance of all University rules and regulations.

Conduct.—The University authorities expect students to maintain a high standard of scholarship, of character, and of consideration for others. A student whose conduct or influence is found to be detrimental to the best interests of the student body may be suspended or expelled.

Dishonesty, invading, licentious, immoral conduct, or any other behavior unbecoming to a student of Southern Methodist University render the student subject to disciplinary action. There shall be no drinking of intoxicating liquors at the University nor at functions of any University group. Flagrant misconduct or continued violation of the rules and regulations will merit suspension or expulsion, as determined by the Faculty Committee on Discipline.

Each student agrees to leave the University and University neighborhood quietly and immediately whenever he is directed to do so by a constituted disciplinary authority of the University.

The Dresses of Men and Women are subject to the administration and enforcement of policies established by the Faculty Committee on Discipline.

The faculty welcomes the hearty cooperation of the Student Government in the maintenance of high standards, and recognizes student sentiment and leadership in student self-government to support good conduct.

Church Attendance.—All students are urged to attend divine worship on Sunday in the church of their choice.

Loss of Personal Property.—The University is not responsible for the loss of personal property belonging to students in any building owned by the University, whether the loss results from theft, fire, or unknown cause.

Physical Education.—All freshmen and sophomores, whether their purpose in entering the University, are required to take physical education or ROTC Physical Science (for men), and must pass four hours' credit in these courses to fulfill graduation requirements. Transfer students of senior standing who have no physical education credit may be graduated with a minimum of two hours' credit in physical education. Students not able to participate in regular physical education program because of some physical defect will be assigned to a special class.
