student activities

The Student Activities section (for lack of a better name) was presented to the Handbook committee in mid-April, and, not wanting to piss-off the ADMINISTRATION, we left it as we got it. So here it is, from Bobby Leach and staff, with love.

The Dean of Students is accountable to the Vice President for Student Affairs for Student Residence Life, Student Programming, Minority Affairs, Housing Services, and the Student Center.

The Office of the Dean of Students, supported by a diversified, well-trained and experienced student personnel staff, is dedicated to enhancing the development of the "total student."

The primary objective of this Office is to meet the needs of students. Our staff is available to any student who may be troubled or concerned about personal problems, academic matters, University policies, housing problems, participation in activities, employment, financial difficulties, or to students who may just need someone to listen. We are willing to help any student find solutions to their problems, or send them to someone who can. Any student encountering any difficulty should not hesitate to call on us at any time.

A diversity of student programs and services are available, and are designed to provide experiences for students that will help them achieve their personal goals, learn about each other, and themselves.

Come in to see us. We care about you, would like to get to know you, and share and exchange ideas with you.

THE OFFICE OF RESIDENCE LIFE

The Office of Residence Life is directly responsible to the Office of the Dean of Students for the quality of life in student residence halls. It is the ultimate goal of this office to make residence life at SMU an integral part of the students' total educational experience. Through the selection, training, and supervision of Hall Directors, Resident Assistants, and Sophomore Advisors, it is our aim to provide a residence hall staff which will effectively administer the residence halls and work closely with students in an effort to establish within each hall an atmosphere of "caring and sharing." This atmosphere is enhanced as the Office of Residence Life works closely with the entire Dean of Students' staff to provide living-learning programs, houses for special interest groups, and leadership training for students and staff. It is felt that this approach to Residence Life best facilitates the total educational process.

Residence Hall Association:

The Residence Hall Association is the governing body of student residents. In advising this organization it is our purpose to provide maximum leadership experience for a large number of students and to involve as many students as possible in residence hall programming and the decision making processes of the Office of Residence Life.
OFFICE FOR HOUSING SERVICES

The Office for Housing Services is directly accountable to the Office of the Dean of Students for the physical and fiscal operations of all University housing.

Students go to the Housing Office to secure help in finding a place to live—on campus or off. In 105 Perkins Administration Building students can receive applications for housing reservations in either the traditional dorms or in the auxiliary apartment units; can request to be reassigned from one residence hall to another; can look at the cards listing off-campus apartments, rooms and houses for rent near-by SMU; can request Short Term housing contracts if they cannot stay both semesters in the dorm; can request to appear before the Housing Review Committee if they are seeking an exception to the housing contract; can purchase special or partial meal tickets if they live in the auxiliary apartment units, or off campus; can arrange for refund of partial board if employed during meal serving hours and live in a traditional residence hall; can receive information about thephoto meal card and assignment to certain cafeteria lines; can make reservations for their parents, or friends, to stay in the dorm guest rooms; can ask questions, or make suggestions, about the housekeeping and maintenance of the residence halls; can receive information about any billing related to housing or meals; room rent, food service costs, room damage charges, lost keys, etc.; can make housing and food service arrangements for conferences or group meetings.
OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS
& RESEARCH
The basic responsibility of this office concerns education outside of the classroom and its focus is on the development of students as whole persons and their maturation into productive, fulfilled humans. Its primary function is to act as a catalyst in the creation of new programs and facilitator in coordinating the efforts and ideas of participating departments during implementation. Once programs are beyond the implementation or experimental stage, they are subsumed by the appropriate department, organization, or office. In this effort, the director works with students, faculty, and staff throughout the University. Examples of such efforts are Living-Learning projects with University College and several academic departments, the Black Ethnicity Center with the Minority Affairs Office, and the Free University with SAD.

In addition to structured academic programs, this office serves as a ready resource for all students or faculty seeking help in creating a program whether it is complementary, ongoing, or a one-time interest. In this function, the office has worked with academic departments and organizations such as RHA, AWS, SAD, WSC, RA's, SA's, and Townspeople as well as individual students.

A secondary responsibility of this office is research. This activity is primarily concerned with evaluation of SMU programs, surveying programs at other colleges, keeping current with published research in advising, counseling, learning theory, and other areas as assigned.

Director: William C. McIntyre, 692-2777

OFFICE OF MINORITY AFFAIRS
The Office of Minority Affairs generally is concerned with all matters as they affect the lives and well-being of minority students. The staff persons assigned to this area are responsible for:

1. Services to individual minority students which include (a) personal counseling, (b) assistance in solving problems, (c) referrals to services and academic areas within the University, (d) facilitating the inclusion and involvement of minority students into the life of the total University, and (e) assisting the student in developing both a philosophical and pragmatic basis for self-actualization.

2. Working with groups and organizations whose primary focus is minority affairs (B.I.A.A.C.S., Los Chicanos).

3. Assisting the University in becoming a pluralistic body by identifying, interpreting, and articulating minority needs, sensitizing the University community to those needs, and working with the University towards solutions to the problems of the historic exclusion of minorities.

4. Developing programs—academic, cultural, social—that meet the needs of minorities.
Two units comprise the Center for Leadership Development:

- Fondren Drive: Experiential Learning Center
- Women's Center

The CENTER FOR EXPERIENCE provides students with a labor to build a foundation of skills and maximize their college experience. Staff facilitates the process of awareness, the sharpening of skills, and the skill of human process involves members of the school, and Dallas community students. Opportunities for ap learning to life situations are volunteer placement in community projects, as well as in established agencies.

The WOMEN'S CENTER is a point for concerns of all women. It's a place to share ideas, place to happenings, and a place to happen to women now. When deciding on a career, examining your sexuality, or examining your society—the Center's staff is for you. Books, magazines, games, and resource people students, faculty, and staff. It is involved in the needs of women and also involved in its activities toward the utilization of each woman's potential.
No, SMU doesn't have a hippopotamus show in the natatorium, but several other things happen each year that are worth seeing. Look through this section, you might find something you would like to attend or work on.

ESPEJO SPEAKER SERIES
Like poetry? Interested in far out fiction? Come to the ESPEJO Speaker Series and impress your date with your cultural awareness.
It is not true that ESPEJO brought in Superman and Santa Claus to speak last year, but they did bring in some of the most prestigious names in contemporary American letters. Try on Gary Snyder or Adrienne Rich for size. Each year they bring in several well-known writers to read from their works. The series has generated considerable interest in literature.
For more information call Ext. 2159 (It will do wonders for your social life.)

PIGSKIN REVUE
Pigskin Revue is not a recapping of high school football scores, nor is it a complexion contest for the domesticated hog or Sus scrofa. Be surprised, friends and neighbors, for Pigskin Revue is produced by the Mustang Band for Homecoming fun. The Thursday before the "big game" they put on a variety show for the students where all seats are unreserved, and then on Friday the same show is given for the reserved seat benefit of returning alumni. You can get your tickets in advance or at the door. Bill Lively, associate band director, knows more about it, so call him at Ext. 2197.

SPRING CONTEMPORARY CONCERT
Each spring, usually in early April, the Mustang Band produces a totally contemporary program featuring the best in current music and band uniforms. This unique "Grand Concert" traditionally commissions guest composers, famous streakers and outstanding artists to arrange and perform with "the best dressed band in the land" the musical sounds and trends relevant to each year. Presented on a one evening basis, the live performance is stereophonically recorded for production of a long play album to be released in May. All seats are unreserved and tickets are sold in advance and at the door.

ACADEMIC CONFERENCE or
The University as Test Tube
Think the university education sucks? Don't go to class and sulk, get involved in academic reform and do some really constructive bitching for change. Last year Academic Conference, which is held in the spring semester, came up with some good ideas, like a student-initiated evaluation. Maybe we could get rid of shit like grades and finals and selective other idiocies that pertain in no way to education. Start working early, call or go by the SAD office, Rm. 210 Student Center. If enough people start getting excited in the fall, the spring conference could come down like the mind of God ordering the administrative chaos of this "Harvard of the South."
WOMEN'S SYMPOSIUM

"Wome, come with me to the two day Women's Interest Coalition (formerly AWS) Symposium this spring," pleaded Doris, who used to be a role model. Mike had put her in for her cohabitation.

"What the hell is that? Some bunch of idiot women spouting a lot of gibberish?"

"No, it's the cream of female intelligentsia speaking on subjects of vital concern to men and women. It's an attempt to make everyone aware of the roles we find our different sexes force us to play. It's an attempt to make us all a little more human."

"Sounds like a crock. When are you going to wash the dishes so I can get down your pants?"

"Please come with me to the Symposium. If nothing else, you might see some good looking chicks," she says, adding under her breath, "who will kick you in the balls like I should have done a year ago."

If you have any questions, call Sandy Plozman in McElvaney Hall or the Women's Interest Coalition office in the Student Center.

CHRISTIAN ARTS FESTIVAL

A new happening, the CAF started only last year, but (with God's help) will happen every spring from now till the Rapture. No specific church or religious sect sponsors this show, which includes studio art, music, dance, theatre and film, both student and professional. If you want to get into the spirit of the movement or maybe help the core committee, call Wally Linebarger or Aledro Braddell.

For some reason all the organizations did not respond when we asked them to write a description of their activities. That is why there are not descriptions for all the groups listed. The groups who didn't turn something in are too lazy or too busy to bother with such things, and either reason would be a good one to investigate the organization. If you need help locating any of them, call Linda Cohen in Dean Leach's office.

Alpha Phi Omega is a service fraternity open to any undergraduate male. The organization stresses leadership, involvement and service. Membership fees and dues are minimal. Members can belong to APO and a social fraternity as well. Offices are located in Room 100 of the Student Center.

American Institute of Industrial Engineers is devoted to stimulating student interest in industrial engineering. Related fields, such as Operations Research, Management Sciences, and Systems Engineering are disciplines which also find relevance in this organization. Benefits are substantial in that the members are entitled to the A.I.I.E. Magazine, attendance on field trips to industry, and regular meetings at which speakers discuss topics relevant to I.E.'s today. All students interested in industrial engineering to the slightest degree are encouraged to attend.

Associated Women Students serves the interests of SMU women. The President, secretary, treasurer and publicity person of AWS, as well as the chairpersons of the Women's Symposium, the Women's Interest Coalition and the Programming Council, sit on the AWS Executive Council, which serves as the general coordinating body of the organization. The annual Women's Symposium brings 600-700 students and community people together with nationally known speakers to discuss such topics as "Can We Be Human Together", "When the Myths Are Gone: Roles of Women in Contemporary Society," and "Kaleidoscope of Change: Coping with the Future." The Women's Interest Coalition, an issue-oriented group, investigates university policy toward women in such areas as women's athletics and women's studies. The Programming Council plans and puts on programs such as a career seminar, a faculty auction, a birth control seminar and a "Women in Politics" seminar. All the groups provide various types of consciousness-raising experiences for interested members.

Blue Key-Cycen Fjadr has leaped into the lives of countless respectable senior men, sprouting the mysterious green chicken feather, symbolizing the mystic union shared by all Cycen Fjadr members. All brothers are pledged to the most abject and monkish silence concerning the magnificent myste of this marvelously majestic miscellany. Eat more chicken.

Campus Crusade for Christ is an organization which challenges men and women to investigate the claims of Christ. If a person wants to consider himself intellectually well-rounded, he at least owes it to himself to consider the claims of Jesus of Nazareth regardless if he is Protestant, Catholic, Jewish or from some other background. Campus Crusade for Christ was begun in 1951 in the Greek system at UCLA by a young businessman by the name of Bill Bright. Since then the movement has spread to over 400 major university campuses in this country and to over 65 foreign countries.
Weekly meetings of the Christian Science Organization are held for all those interested in learning more about Christian Science. Passages from the Bible along with passages from our denominational textbook, which help explain the Bible, are read and then testimonies of healing are shared. Everyone is welcome at our meetings.

The Daily Campus is an independent student newspaper published four times a week by the SMU Students Publishing Co. The views expressed in the Daily Campus are those of the student staff, not necessarily those of Southern Methodist University. The staff positions are open to any interested student. Non-journalism majors are welcome, although some journalism experience is helpful. Offices are in Room 49, Student Center.

Espejo has never been associated with Ports O’ Call, though this young and exciting magazine deals in some of the finest literary cuisine available on the campus. Buy a full edition and take a big bite of good reading. Or if that tantalizing morsel has sold out, munch on some great contemporary literature at the Espejo Speaker Series. For a more detailed explanation of our menu, call 692-2159.

Omega Phi Alpha is a local women's service organization which acts as an auxiliary of Alpha Phi Omega. Organized in 1971 as a group of women dedicated to the goals and principles of APO, OPA's main purpose is to assist the APO brothers at SMU in their projects.
Although APO's national rules forbid women from joining or from voting in chapter meetings, OPA members actively participate in everything the SMU chapter of APO does, from working to partying. OPA is not associated with any na-national organization, membership stretches no further than the Dallas-SMU area.

Omega Phi Alpha is open to all female full-time SMU students who support our ideals of leadership, friendship and service. Members may also belong to a social sorority at the same time.

The SMU Panhellenic is composed of all national sorority members on the SMU campus. Twice a month, representatives from each sorority meet with a five-person executive council whose members are chosen from the sororities on a rotating basis. This body coordinates inter-sorority activities such as freshman orientation, rush and special projects. SMU Panhellenic members are governed by a constitution and a variety of standing rules which regulate sorority conduct in rushing procedure, pledging and initiation. SMU Panhellenic is also a member of the National Panhellenic Conference.

The Residence Hall Association, serving as a vital voice in residential education, is moving into its fourth year of existence. All of the halls are unified under one central body, the Residence Hall Association. The executive officers are elected at large from the Residence Hall Association.

Everyone living in traditional and auxiliary housing becomes a member of the RHA. Elections for positions on the three levels—Executive Council, RHC, and Floor Council—are held during the first three weeks of September by the combined efforts of the carry-over RHA Officers, Hall Directors, Resident Assistants, and Sophomore Advisors. It should be kept in mind that the election dates are subject to change.

The RHA, in conjunction with the Office of Residence Life, is responsible for all educational activities for residential SMU. The RHC's will be and are constantly challenged by the General Council and Hall Directors to develop plans and follow through on objectives. The main body of RHA programming comes from these hall councils.

The RHA's General Council, with two representatives from each traditional hall and one from each auxiliary unit, deal largely with policy improvements in residential living and serve to connect the RHA with other SMU governing bodies.

The Rotunda, SMU's yearbook, is planned, designed and produced by a staff of student artists, photographers and editorial assistants. Students may obtain a copy of the Rotunda by requesting the optional $5 fee at registration tables.

The scope of the SMU chapter of Sigma Delta...
Chi activities is broad. Programs are designed to benefit not only the members, but campus, district and state as well. Contests and awards are provided for the press of the state, the college and high school fields. The chapters cooperate closely with the state press associations and nearby professional chapters in conducting meetings and various activities. Inquiries about Sigma Delta Chi should be directed to Charles Reynolds, SMU Students' Publishing Company, Rm. 51, Student Center.

The club works for the election of Democrats in all elections at national, state and local levels.

SMU Libertarians believe we understand the full logical implications of individual liberty—what sort of political and economic organization is required, for example, if the concept of individual freedom is to be applied consistently to all.

If you can see the logical contradiction in the popular sentiment that "everyone, regardless of whether he works or not, has a natural right to a comfortable standard of living," maybe you'd like to talk with some SMU Libertarians.

St. Alban's Collegiate Chapel, an Episcopal ministry, holds daily services open to all denominations. Father William W. Millsaps is the Chaplain and provides counselling. St. Alban's Canterbury House provides opportunities for students and faculty to make a contribution to the life of the Church and to grow in the Christian faith.

dent at any college level who is interested in teaching as a profession or education in our society in general. Membership fee is $7.50.

No, we did not list all the bathrooms on campus in this section. We figured you knew how to use them and could find them on your own. In this part of the book, we put in some of the other frequently used and needed facilities. We hope that during your stay at the "Country Club" you will eventually discover everything you’re paying for. Half the fun of SMU is exploring it.

As before, we must apologize for not putting in all the facilities on campus, but alas we were limited by a lack of time. We hope this will be a little bit helpful.

HEALTH CENTER

Only a hospital loves sick people

"Golly, gee-whillikers, phooey—I can’t get sick right before finals," Mike’s voice echoed inside the toilet where he had been puking for several hours. "I wish the Shell Answer Man in his toupee would come and tell me how to solve this problem. Oh, woe is me!"

"My son, my son, you just call out my name and I’ll be there. Wow, that sounds like a song, doesn’t it? I’m sorry you’re feeling so poorly, perhaps you should go to the SMU Clinic/Hospital. They employ four full-time physicians, several registered nurses, pharmacists, laboratory and X-ray technicians, not to mention soft drink machines and a television or two. Although the hours are 9 to 4 during the fall and spring semesters, they have a nurse on duty 24 hours a day for your illnesses and accidents. Why don’t you call over there and tell the nurse you’re coming. Just dial 692-2141 and you’ll be on the road to recovery."

"Could you call, I’m feeling a little sick again. But, before I throw up, is that a new toupee?"

"No, Mike, and I’m getting damn tired of you bringing that up. While you go barf, I’m going to talk to myself about the Health Center. Mike rushes from the room with his hand over his mouth. The toupee-ed problem solver says, "It’s so wonderful how the general activity fee covers a routine visit to the doctor. All you need is your student I.D. because everyone knows you don’t exist without it. And it is even more wonderful that your insurance policy will usually pay for any expenses incurred during a stay, though a group hospitalization policy is available.

"But one of my favorite aspects is the 27 beds in semi-private rooms, and the way they’ll let you go to class even if you’re staying in the hospital. But then again, they don’t handle broken bones, surgery, or any serious illness like bubonic plague.

"If you’ve got V.D., however, they treat that and keep it confidential as all get out. They even have a gynecologist who comes in on Wednesday for half a day. They also provide contraceptives (I wonder if Doris knows about that?) and a contraceptive clinic which is a joint effort between the doctors and the mental health service. Mike, are you ready to go throw up at the Clinic/Hospital?"

"No, I think I’m alright now. I just had too much to drink. But I’m glad you came over because you’re so ugly with that toupee that it always makes me feel better."
MUSIC PRACTICE ROOMS or Where to go to play your tuba
during quiet hours

"Doris, I don't care if Philip Sousa gave you that tuba, I've got a test tomorrow, and 'OB-LA-DI, OB-LA-DI' just breaks my concentration.
You're going to have to go somewhere else," screamed Debby as her brains began dribbling out her right ear and her eyes slowly crossed.

"But where can I go, Debby? Security picked me up when I tried playing underwater at the pool. I do love to play, can't I stay?"

"Doris, there are practice rooms available in Owen Fine Arts Center. Music students pay a small rental fee and sign up for certain hours, but it's open from 7:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. and non-musicians may use any unfilled times," said a strange man who had appeared from one of the wall sockets.

Doris exclaimed, "I recognize you! You're the Shell Answer Man with a toupee. Mike told me about you. Hey, if I give you a little kiss, will you take off your toupee? Pretty please?"

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

You can usually play basketball or badminton in Moody Coliseum, though varsity basketball has preference. When Moody is closed, you might be able to use the Women's Gym.
The Ownby Stadium track is usually available, as are the handball courts inside Ownby. However, you usually need a reservation to play, so call 692-2206 for further info. Besides this, you can find baseball, soccer, football and jogging fields by Moody or south of the freshman quad.
Tennis courts are spread throughout campus.
Of course, you can flip a Frisbee nearly anywhere. The Red Barr Memorial Pool is the heated pool behind Perkins Natatorium. You only need an I.D. to get in. If you need athletic equipment, you may check it out with a valid-dated I.D. at the P.E. Department in Moody or the Women's Gym.

STUDENT CENTER

The Umphrey Lee Student Center houses ofices of the Dean of Students, as well as meeting rooms available to you for no charge. You will find here SAD's Circuits right off the first floor lounge and a snack bar for soft drinks and other questionable nutrition. The SMU Students' Publishing Co. has its offices in the basement, near the east cafeteria. Also in the basement is a crafts shop and recreation room which is open till 11:00 p.m. It has pool, foosball, air hockey, pong, pinball, ping-pong and Doug Newby's ghost. The rates are cheap, if you've gotten an I.D. You can't get in the Student Center before 7:00 a.m. and after 12 midnight, Sunday thru Thursday. The hours are 7:00 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

INFORMATION BOOTH

Hopefully this year the Information Booth in the Student Center lobby will provide more services and information than it has in the past.
Even if they don't improve, it's a good place to find out what's going on around campus. They are also in charge of the display calendar lo-them at 692-2378.

MEADOWS MUSEUM AND MUDGE GALLERY

Directly north of the nude ladies in front of Owens, the Meadows Museum houses some very special Spanish paintings, as well as complete sets of first prints by Goya. Other painters include Velazquez, Murillo, Rubens and Picasso. You'll love this corner of SMU, more than the pool on a hot day. Open 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. daily, except Sunday 1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. (Ext. 2740 or 2515)

Mudge Gallery, right next door to Meadows, specializes in modern art, and brings many fine displays to campus, as well as exhibiting student work. Hours vary.

DALLAS HALL MEDIA CENTER

If you've got to make a class presentation some time, this is the place to go. They've got tapes and films and records and all sorts of media, but they're all available only for classroom use. If you get tired of your teacher's B.S., schedule a film for one day. They'll show it, and you'll get a break. Call 'em at Ext. 2313.

FONDREN LIBRARY

Fondren Library is the papa of the SMU Library system. It stands in its elegant mixed architecture on Aline between Clements Hall and its offspring, the Science Information Center (better known as S.I.C.). Fondren's card catalogue has the card on any book in any SMU library, so if you want to know if SMU has the book, go to Fondren, rather than the other libraries. The call numbers come in two systems for easier confusion. Right there in the clunky halls of Fondren Library can be found the Dewey Decimal system that you learned in elementary school and the Library of Congress system for young adults and politicians. However, the librarians have put up charts everywhere to tell you which floor or stack level has which books. It really is simple. When you find your book, check it out at the circulation desk and not in the toilet. Fondren's hours last from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturday, and 2:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. Sunday. (Ext. 2329)

Other facilities in Fondren include the Reserve Room, where books your instructors have put on reserve for your class may be had for a two hour session. Reserve hours go from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturday, and 6:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. Sunday. (Ext. 2330)

You need some government documents? Fondren's got you covered. Go to the Government Documents Room, on the other side of the Reserve Room which is on the right as you go in. It contains census material and other U.S. data, as well as U.N. and Texas information. It's open the same times the Reserve Room is. (Ext. 2331)

Such things as encyclopedias, guides to periodic literature and other reference materials may be discovered on the main floor. Any questions about reference goodies should be referred to the Reference Office (Ext. 2326). By the way, you can't check out reference items.

The first floor also contains the current periodicals, as well as the Periodical Office against the back wall. However, most of the older periodicals are in the basement. If you're having trouble finding a particular magazine, go to the office. They are most congenial. (Ext. 2332)

You might want to check out the Microfilm Room sometime. They've got all sorts of information and equipment. You might want to take a date, because it's usually dark.

One of the most useful services the library offers is the Media Services Center on the second floor. They have films and photocopy machines; apparatus for tape duplication and changing records to tapes, as well as ditto machines and an 8-mm projector. If you're using the equipment for a class presentation, you don't pay. However, for personal projects, you pay a minimal fee. The Center's hours are 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Saturday, and 2:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. Sunday. (Ext. 2335)

If SMU doesn't have it, maybe they can get it for you through the Inter-Library Loan Office. (Ext. 2328)

SCIENCE LIBRARY

Right next door (on the north) to Fondren Library, you will find the Science Library right at home in the S.I.C. There are lots of goodies in there, such as collections in engineering, mathematics and science. And it has more wonderfully strange little machines than you could easily shake a stick at, supposing you had a stick to shake. (They'd probably make you check it as you went in.) This may not be as helpful for the general undergrad researcher, but it's usually a quieter and less crowded place to study (?) than Fondren. Hours: 8:00 a.m.-11:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Friday, 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Saturday, and 2:00 p.m.-11:00 p.m. Sunday. (Ext. 2275)

ART LIBRARY AND MUSIC LIBRARY

If you want to look at some good pictures or read up on the life of Jan van Eyck, go in the side door of the Mudge Art Bldg. and take the first right. You won't find TIME or NEWSWEEK in this library, but you might discover Giovanni Bellini or his brother. An hour or two spent here will make up for the five hours you spent drinking last night. It's open from 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Friday, 2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. Saturday, and 7:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. on Sunday. (Ext. 2796)

You'll have to look a long time to find the Music Library on the second floor of Forbes Music Building in the Owen complex, but it's worth it. They don't have a lot of books, but they do have some very fine recordings and earphones for your private audio-orgasms. They stay open from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday-Friday and 6:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Saturday and 2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. on Sunday. (Ext. 2894)

By the way, you can't check anything out of these two libraries. (Tells you how good the holdings are!)

UNDERWOOD LAW LIBRARY

Everyone tries to forget it, but the Law Library was dedicated by the John Mitchell of Watergate fame. However, it has never been arrested, and they have finally gotten the geese and elephants out of the stacks. Undergraduates may use it for research and/or study. It beautifully houses collections dealing with international law hours are very sin

SECURITY OFFICE or
How to get to Jack-in-the-Box

"Oh Mike, I had so much fun tonight. When you put that snail on your head at Old Warsaw, I thought I'd die," Doris cooes softly wrinkling Mike's $30 rented tux.

"Doris, when you blew your nose in your napkin, I knew you were the one for me. But I think it's time we went to bed. Flip the switch so the Security Officer will come unlock the door."

Doris sulkingly flips the light, but turns and grabs Mike by the arm. Looking deep in his eyes, she says, "Let's go to Jack-in-the-Box."

"Good idea," Mike gasps, and they run out to his Grand Prix. But alas, it is gone. Mike's blue Grand Prix with sunroof and tape deck has been stolen! Doris screams while Mike breaks into tears.

A good looking man in a brown uniform with a gold cape rushes up and calmly asks, "What is the trouble? I'm Officer Dought of the SMU Traffic Control or, in the vernacular, Security.
I'm certain I can help. We of Security serve many functions: register vehicles, give them tickets, chase them down when they are speeding, assist rapees, give drug lectures, act as the campus Lost and Found, and enforce state and local regulations on the SMU Campus. All this by simply calling 692-3333."

"Cut the crap, cop, my car has been ripped off. I need help."

"SMU Traffic Control also investigates incidents of a police type nature, and this certainly qualifies. What was the make of the car and the license number?"

As they go thru this Dragnet-type stuff, the Shell Answer Man, with his toupee, comes out of the gloom to explain, "SMU Security is located in the north end of the Computer Center at 3175 Yale Blvd. and is always open. If someone on your floor needs transportation to the hospital, call them at 692-3333. Any violation of the law should be reported to them at 692-3333. They also register bicycles, as well as cars. They know most everything that is going on and will gladly share the information, so just call 692-3333. But I believe Officer Do-right has solved the crime . . ."

"Gosh, officer, I'm so embarrassed. We were in such a hurry to get to Jack-in-the-Box that I forgot we parked in front of the dorm. Thanks a lot for all your help."

"It was all in the line of duty. Oops, somebody wants in the dorm. You kids be careful and don't play with matches."

"Oh, what a swell man," Doris cooes.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Sincerely, SMU Security is a very important and helpful group of men and women and not your stereotypic policeman, at all. Never hesitate to call them at 69 . . . I'm sure you know the number by now.
Counseling is a serious and important service that SMU provides us. We have approached it with that attitude, and hope you will, too. You pay for these people, you might as well use them. Besides the economic reason, the counselors here are experts and extremely helpful. And beyond that, college students need all the help they can get.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE
You’re going to discover an interesting group of people if you stop by the Mental Health Service. Dr. Anne Race does an excellent job coordinating the talents of her six staff persons. They provide psychiatric evaluation, consultation, crisis intervention and psychotherapy. The Office of Residence Life carries on extensive interaction with MHS. All interviews are conducted on a confidential and voluntary basis, so all you need to do is call them. You won’t have to pay because it’s covered in your fees. Drop by to see them, they’re located in the Memorial Health Center. You can enter on the south side, the door with the ramp. (Ext. 2860)

JUDICIARY ADVISOR
So you got caught smoking dope in the elevator in Perkins Administration and you want to know who to bribe to get out of a judiciary performance? Call the judiciary advisor. This individual decides whether or not a rule violation has occurred, and then assigns the case to the appropriate hearing board. The judiciary advisor is also responsible for giving students written notice of their judiciary show.

Vice-President Wroten appoints the judiciary advisor, but at press time, the decision was still uncertain. For more information call Wroten or Jim Caswell.

FINANCIAL AID
Yes, SMU is very expensive. If you need some help paying the bills, drop by the Financial Aid Office, Rm. 101 of Perkins Administration, Ext. 3417, you might be eligible for a scholarship. If not a scholarship, maybe a grant or a loan or work-study. If you get into some financial trouble, they can also arrange a small, short-term loan.

LEGAL COUNSELING
Lon Curtis, the SMU student’s attorney, gives advise and counsel to any SMU student concerning litigation. This service is free. Most of his work deals with landlord-tenant squabbles and suits on contracts relating to car repairs and car sales. Mr. Curtis cannot do family-law litigation because of the time involved, nor does he handle criminal offenses or traffic violations. He cannot participate in litigation against SMU. His office, located in the basement of Storey Hall, is open from 8:30 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. (Ext. 3562)

CHICANOS’ ADVISOR
Ms. Irma Cantu and her organization serve as an advisor to all Chicano students, as well as a resource group to the faculty, administration and the community in general. They also help with the activities of Los Chicanos. You may find them in Rm. 208 of the Student Center between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

The Discovery Center is the place to come to find out about anything. A University College advisor and career counselors are available at all times. They are there to provide information about careers, courses at SMU, the different schools within the University, and any other questions you might have. Video tapes and cassette monitors are also available to provide further information. There is a link-up with all of the professional schools on campus in order to provide you with any information not found at the Discovery Center.

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

Baptist Student Union—An ordained minister directs the BSU. He offers general counseling on any topic with which you feel troubled. The number is 361-0952.

Catholic—Father Luke Miranda is available for religious counseling. You can contact him in Rm. 208 of the Student Center or call him at Ext. 2788 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays. You might try him at home; 3240 Daniels, #101 or telephone 363-6780.

Chaplain to the University (acting)—Bob Cooper does personal counseling including problems with studying, roommate hassles, and male/female troubles. He handles pre-marital differences, as well as marriage counseling. He is most helpful with religious vocational counseling. He's located in the Student Center, Ext. 2787.

Episcopal—Canterbury House at 3308 Daniels holds Episcopal services. Rev. Millsaps, rector of St. Alban's Episcopal Chapel, counsels students on the different, troubling aspects of college life. You can use St. Alban's House for studying or socializing until midnight. If you go to 5:00 mass on Sunday with 50¢, you can have a Canterbury dinner which must be much different than a regular Sunday dinner.

Judaism—Dr. Blum, the rabbi at SMU, offers service to the Jewish student population, but will gladly work with non-Jewish students. His counseling consists of informal rap sessions.
conSUMER CONCERNS

If you want to practice up on your materialism, you definitely came to the right school. Situated in the "fat" center of wheelin'-dealin' Dallas, SMU is within easy driving or busing distance of some of the world's greatest consumer brothels. We have listed most of them here and hope you are satisfied by at least one of them. However, if you are not, call Lon Curtis, the students' attorney, at 692-3562 (see Counseling section), or ring up one of the consumer protection groups listed in this section. An asterisk (*) denotes those establishments most easily accessible to the SMU community.

Obviously, we couldn’t put down every type of entertainment found in Dallas. We decided not to include any bars because we knew you would find as many of those as you can afford. We put in the places you can go and spend a gentle afternoon with a lover or a friend or alone. At least, you can be assured that you’ll enjoy whatever you go to that’s listed here. We left it sketchy for quick and easy reference. This section is sort of the 7-11 of Dallas entertainment. Enjoy! ENJOY!

ON-CAMPUS ENTERTAINMENT

Varsity Athletics

SMU offers many opportunities to watch varsity athletics, sometimes at their best, some at their most mediocre. SMU is a member of the NCAA, whatever that may mean to you. This past year it meant the football team was put on two years probation for paying some team members as an added incentive. (Paying tuition, fees, books, laundry, room and board, however, is not considered payment.) SMU participates in the Southwest Athletic Conference in the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross-country, football, golf, soccer, swimming (where we not only participate, we dominate), tennis and track.

All home athletic events take place on campus with the exceptions of cross-country, football, golf and track. Most are free, requiring only a validated I.D. for admission. Football (the favorite sport of the alumni) and basketball require the purchase of a ticket for an individual game or an athletic card, purchased for $15 at registration.

Home baseball games are played on Armstrong Field, east of the freshman quad, and basketball games are located in Moody Coliseum. Penalized Mustang football will try its luck at the Cotton Bowl in Fair Park (for maximum student inconvenience), while the more inconsequential freshman football is readily accessible at Owmby Stadium. The newly organized and exceedingly exciting soccer team plays its brand of football on Armstrong Field. The swimmers perform in Perkins Natatorium, and our very fine tennis team usually wins at the Varsity Courts, across the street from the intramural fields.

Contrary to popular demand, foosball was not made a varsity sport. Sorry, Pub freaks.

Intramurals

You probably came to SMU assuming they had varsity badminton and volleyball, and now you're disappointed, right? Don't be, because badminton and volleyball are offered in the intramural program. The Men's Intramural Office in Moody and the Mustang Recreation Association (women's intramurals) regulate and coordinate the various intramural offerings which include badminton, basketball, billiards, football, handball, softball, swimming, table tennis, tennis, track and field, and volleyball. Men should call 692-2260 and women phone 692-2193 for further information.

Student Activities Directorate (SAD)

SAD sponsors some of the most entertaining activities on campus. They're the people who bring the weekend flicks that are usually free on Friday nights and cost 50c on Saturday. They do a good job of publicity, so all you need do is keep your eyes open.

They also support The Circuit for when you're high or low. They usually bring in some very, very good local talent, like Uncle Walt's Band. The music is gentle and the people are, too.

Wednesday and weekend nights, 9:00 p.m.-12 midnight.

SAD also sponsors Big Birds, Academic Conference, Manada, some speakers (like Ralph Nader), and they used to have a Gentle Friday's. Which are like a T.G.I.F. for non-Greeks. You ought to bitches a little, and they'd bring them back. They do lots of nice things spontaneously, like last year they brought in a magician to fake us around. Their office is 209 of the Student Center with phone number 692-3353. They're always looking for helpful souls, so drop by their office and see what you can do.

Bob Hope Theatre

The Drama Division of the School of Fine Arts produces excellent plays each year and does a superior job with each one. This is an interesting, entertaining, inexpensive and educational way to spend a weekend evening. Also, the Margos Jones Experimental Theatre does some intriguing things through the year, sometimes producing student drama. Call the Fine Arts ticket office at 692-2573 for further information and reservations.

THE STUDENT CODE

INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDENT CODE

Southern Methodist University exists for the education and benefit of students. This University is composed of three constituent groups: students, faculty, and administrators (including staff). Together, these groups form the "University" and share many areas of mutual concern and interest. Decisions concerning policies for these areas of mutual concern are arrived at through a process of shared input and governance through governance bodies such as the Student Senate, Faculty Senate, Shared Governance Council, Advisory Board to the Vice President for Student Affairs, Advisory Board to the Provost, Judiciary Boards, etc.

There are other areas, however, which lie basically within the realm of one constituency. Those areas which are of special and overriding concern to students are addressed in two ways: (1) the Constitution of the Students' Association of Southern Methodist University, which was adopted on April 24, 1974, and (2) the Student Code and all other forms of legislation of the Student Senate. All students are responsible for being conversant with the issues addressed in the Student Code and the policies it establishes. All students are also responsible for providing input to the elected officials of the Students' Association in order that the Student Code can be a reasonable document for students within the University community.

I. POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALL STUDENTS

A. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS

Students should conduct themselves as responsible people and law-abiding citizens. Violations of responsibilities as delineated in the Student Code and/or University policy shall result in proper disciplinary action. All local, state, and federal laws are upheld by the Students' Association of Southern Methodist University, and violations of these could be disciplined by civil authorities and/or the University. The responsibilities and rights of students contained in this Student Code and all other legislation of the Students' Association are established by students for students. Violations of these rules and University policy by students will result in the imposition by other students of penalties on the violators. A summary of violations and penalties may be found as Appendix 1 to this document. Matriculation in SMU is considered by the Students' Association and the University as an implicit declaration of acceptance on the part of the student of the Student Code and University policies.

B. GUESTS ON CAMPUS

While on campus, all guests of students must uphold the regulations established by and enforceable through the Student Code. The conduct of a guest on campus is the responsibility of the student host.

C. DRUGS

The drug policy is adherence to all federal, state, and local laws.

D. ALCOHOL

Every student shall abide by the following Board of Trustees Alcohol Policy adopted on May 14, 1971:

The University prohibits the consumption of alcoholic beverages in public places on campus.

The Board of Trustees effects upon persons at the University at all times. The University community members at all times that his actions are possible social behavior disciplinary action will be taken. Students in particular unlawful for any person to sell, buy, or sell all that each individual participates.

This policy is for the well-being of the University.

This policy has the following guidelines:

1. The University recognizes the role of conscience in open and flagrant disciplinary action.

2. The University (Public shall be defined as dining areas, all lobby Center, McFarlin Audr

3. The University personal responsibility and the reflection of the fact that persons will participate in this process.

4. Resident ho
sophomore sponsors must recognize that the question of alcoholic beverages is of primary importance in their advisory role dealing with minor students, especially freshmen. No person should accept responsibility, either voluntary or paid, to counsel and advise campus residents should he find himself unable because of philosophic disagreement, to enforce the policies and regulations of the University.

While some students come from homes where beverage alcohol is consumed socially, others will have had no experience at all with beverage alcohol. All students, especially freshmen, should be encouraged to attend the meetings which have been scheduled for the purpose of education on this subject, conducted under the sponsorship of the University Health Center and the Dallas Committee on Alcoholism. Any problem cases due to beverage alcohol should be referred immediately to counseling services, entirely apart from discipline procedures that might have to be invoked.

(5) Residents of University graduate housing are expected to assume full personal responsibility for their own conduct.

(6) Residents in the other dormitories will be expected to observe strictly the Texas Statutes and City ordinances regarding the use of alcoholic beverages. Under no circumstances can the University become a sanctuary for violation of the law.

E. FIREARMS AND FIREWORKS

Students are prohibited from the use of firearms, explosives, fireworks, or incendiary devices on University property. Student-owned sporting rifles and shotguns may be registered and stored through arrangements with the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designate.

F. HAZING

Hazing is considered to be an affront — physical, mental and/or moral — to the dignity of a student by a group or any representative of a group. Activities strictly and specifically forbidden are the following: paddling in any form; psychological or physical shocks; road trips; illegal scavenger hunts; rides and any other activity carried on outside the confines of the group’s meeting place; engaging in humiliating public stunts; degrading and possible injurious games; late work sessions on nights preceding class days; and any similar activities.

Any activity involving mental anguish, physical suffering, or danger to life is strictly forbidden. Complaints concerning hazing should be directed to the Office of the Student Body President.

III. POLICIES PERTAINING TO RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

A. RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The work of a recognized student organization is an essential part of the learning environment at Southern Methodist University. Open to all students and facilitated through faculty and staff resource persons, these organizations develop many opportunities for experiential learning which supplement and reinforce the classroom activities for students.

The Student Senate has the sole power and responsibility to establish criteria for granting, denying and removing recognized student organization status. Official recognition of a student organization grants many privileges. These include use of the Student Center facilities for meetings, publicity of events by the Student Senate Program Council, the use of the University name, and the right to petition for use of Student Activity Fee monies. These privileges are accorded only to those groups of students who have obtained annual recognition from the Student Senate as an organization. Recognized student organizations do not speak officially for the Students' Association or the University.

B. GRANTING RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATION STATUS

The Student Senate will grant recognition on the basis of the following information:

1) A Constitution, By-Laws, or Statement of Purpose which includes all of the following:
   a. Intention of the group
   b. Membership selection process
   c. Duties of the officers
2) Names of officers, addresses, and phone numbers
3) Name of representative to the Student Senate Program Council, address and phone number
4) Name of faculty, staff, or alumni advisor, address and phone number, if advisor is desired

This information must be turned in to the University Governance Office. Groups re-applying for recognized student organization status must submit this information no later than the end of the third week of classes in the fall semester. Previously unrecognized groups requesting recognition during the course of an academic year may submit this information at any time.

C. DENYING OR REMOVING RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATION STATUS

The Student Senate will remove recognized student organization status under any one of or combination of the following conditions:

1) Non-participation in the Student Senate Program Council
2) Misuse of funds and/or non-compliance with stipulations placed by the Student Senate on allocated Student Activity Fee monies
3) Failure to submit to the Student Senate for approval any change made in the Constitution, By-Laws, or Statement of Purpose of the recognized student organization
4) Failure to notify the University Governance Office within two weeks of changes in the officers and/or advisors of the recognized student organization.

5) Failure to adhere to established recognized student organization policies
6) Failure to adhere to the group's own Constitution, By-Laws, or Statement of Purpose

If recognized student organization status is denied or removed, a student group may reapply subject to procedures outlined for obtaining recognized student organization status.

A group seeking to be recognized as a student organization may request the use of Student Center facilities for organizational meetings. The Office of the Secretary of the Students' Association will handle these requests.

E. ADVISORS

Faculty, alumni, or staff advisors may be chosen by each organization. The advisors may serve in any capacity the recognized student organization determines, but they do not have the authority to control the policy or funds of the recognized student organization.

F. SPECIFIC POLICIES

A recognized student organization may establish specific policies for its organization and members, but those policies must be in accordance with the Student Code and are subject to review by the Student Senate.

G. MEMBERSHIP

If a recognized student organization disbands, the assets of that recognized student organization will revert to the source of its funding. Neither the Students' Association nor the University is liable for the debts incurred by a recognized student organization.

I. CONTRACTS

Any contractual agreement entered into by a recognized student organization must be sent to the Office of the Students' Attorney before finalization. The president or appropriate officer... of each recognized student organization is encouraged to contact the Students' Attorney at the beginning of the Fall Semester to facilitate the procedure for handling contracts.

J. SALES

Recognized student organizations may request permission to have sales projects within the guidelines established by the Student Code. (See II. POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALL STUDENTS, Section 4. SALES AND DISTRIBUTION)

K. REGISTRATION OF ON-CAMPUS FUNCTIONS

Any campus programming or social functions given by a recognized student organization must be scheduled through the Student Senate Program Council. Possible types of information may include the type of function, date, place, hours, expected number of participants, and whether or not security is needed. Coordination of these events is through a central calendar maintained by the Program Council. Changes in scheduling should be reported to the Program Council since this serves to avoid major conflicts and provides one central place at which information can be obtained concerning any on-campus activity. If an event is believed to threaten the health, safety, or property of the members of the student community, the request for scheduling will be denied until it can be referred through the Program Council to the Office of the Student Senate President for direction to the Student Senate.

No public performance may be held by any group of students or off-campus persons unless sponsored by a recognized student organization.

L. REGISTRATION OF OFF-CAMPUS FUNCTIONS

Recognized student organizations must register all off-campus functions including social events, retreats, and out-of-town conferences with the Program Council. POLICIES PERTAINING TO RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATION, Section K. REGISTRATION OF ON-CAMPUS FUNCTIONS)

These policies are subject to review by the Student Senate and shall be in accord with the Student Code or any other form of Student Senate legislation.

The Student Senate reaffirms the policy of one-semester deferred rush in conjunction with IFC and Panhellenic.
