

SMU-in-Taos
August Term, 2013
July 28 – August 14

BL 3335
Business Law
Cox School of Business

Course Description

This is a course in basic legal survival. Topics include:

- Incorporate legal, ethical, & profitability considerations in decision-making
- Formulating and practicing policies and procedures designed to minimize exposure to corporate and individual liability and avoid litigation
- Working effectively with attorneys
- Cultivating effective, long-term, business and professional relationships based on communication, character, and competency.

Text: Clarkson, West's Business Law, 12th Edition (West 2011)
Available in the Bookstore: Please purchase in advance.

Course Handouts: Available in Printed form.
Dates to be announced.

Location: SMU-in-Taos, Fort Burgwin, New Mexico

Registration & Other Info: SMU-in-Taos Office, Room 338, Blanton Bldg. www.smu.edu/taos 214-768-3657

Barbara W. Kincaid ♦ Senior Lecturer in Business Law

♦ 214- 768- 1806 ♦ bkinaid@cox.smu.edu

Updated 10/10/12