Defining the Southwest

CF 3338

August Term Instructor Anne Allbright

This is an interdisciplinary course that examines the various ways in which the land and its people of Southwest are defined, internally and externally. We will look at what gives the Southwest its essence as a distinct place. We will primarily focus on Hispanos, Indians, and Anglos of the region. We will see the Southwest through these lenses:

Colonization, Immigration, Historical, Geography, Tourism, Arts and Crafts, Photography, Film, Literature, and the Imagined

We Will Visit:

Museums, Pueblos, Artists' Homes, Historical Landmarks

Hike and Explore Parks and the Natural Landscape

Read

Desert Solitaire: A Season in the Wilderness

And Watch Films such as

No Country for Old Men

For more information contact: Anne Allbright at aallbright@smu.edu