

Truman and Anita Arnold

Anita Ray Arnold is a Partner in TA Capital and is active in community service. In addition to serving on the board of the Willis M. Tate Distinguished Lecture Series, Anita serves on the board of the AT&T Performing Arts Center, Texas Cultural Trust Board of Directors, Texas Women for the Arts, and The Baylor Healthcare Systems Foundation.

Anita has been involved in numerous organizations including serving as a Trustee of the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., chairing the education committee. She has served as a board member of the Clinton School of Public Service and the Texas Committee for the Humanities, and various other boards.

Truman Arnold is Managing Partner of TA Capital. He has served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Texarkana College Foundation Board, past President of Texarkana Community College, Board of Regents of Lamar University and active in other fundraising and charitable organizations. In 2006, he was appointed by Governor Rick Perry to the Tax Reform Commission resulting in legislation reforming the methodology for funding public education in Texas.

In 2007, Anita & Truman Arnold were awarded an Honorary Doctor of Leadership degree from Texas A&M University-Texarkana in recognition of their many humanitarian Achievements.