THE CALL TO WORSHIP
Judith H. Henneberger
Associate Chaplain and Minister to the University
Isaiah 43: 1b-2, 5-7
Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are mine.
When you pass through the waters I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you…
May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought laid we justify some terror with an anticipated creed.
As two currents in a river fight each other’s undertow till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow.
Blend, O God, our faith and learning till they carve a single course, till they join as one returning, praise and thanks to you, their Source.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
Katherine Harrison Newsome
Candidate for degree of Bachelor of Arts in Psychology

Holy God, You have called us to be diligent teachers and eager learners in all that we do, both in this community and in Your larger world. Now send us forth into that world as Your willing servants.
Give us the strength lightly to bear our joys and sorrows.
Give us the strength to make our love fruitful in service.
Give us the strength never to discover the poison or bend our knees before insolent might.
Give us the strength to raise our minds high above earthly trifles.
And give us the strength to surrender our strength to Your will with love. Amen.

- Hindu Prayer

HYMN
God of Love and God of Power
Led by Budi Taniwan

God of love and God of power, grant us in this burning hour grace to ask these gifts of thee, daring hearts and spirits free.
God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.
We are not the first to be, banished by our fears from thee;
give us courage, let us hear heaven’s trumpets ringing clear.
God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.
All our lives belong to thee, thou our final loyalty;
slaves are we whome’er we share that devotion anywhere.
God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.
God of love and God of power, make us worthy of this hour;
or offering lives if it’s thy will, keeping free our spirits still.
God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.

THE BLESSING AND RESPONSE
Stephen W. Rankin
Chaplain and Minister to the University

The time has come to go forth.
Senior Class: We go in thanksgiving for all we have learned.
This is a bittersweet moment.
Senior Class: We rejoice in our growth and in bonds of friendship, even as we bid farewell.
This is a moment of anticipation.
Senior Class: We look forward with excitement, eager to embrace all that awaits us.
Go now in peace and hope, and may blessing accompany you always. Amen.

Please stay in place for the Rotunda Recessional, which will follow immediately.
One of the University's most symbolic traditions is Rotunda Passage, which includes both a processional and recessional. Many of tonight's candidates for graduation began their lives at SMU by processing through the Rotunda of Dallas Hall to Opening Convocation in this auditorium, symbolizing their entrance to SMU. Tonight, all candidates will recess through the Rotunda as a symbolic departure from campus and out into their future as the newest members of the SMU Alumni family. Alumni who are parents of graduating seniors are serving as marshals for tonight's recessional. They will help line the path between McFarlin Auditorium and Dallas Hall for the recessional participants.

REMARKS

Stephanie Brown
Union President, Class of 2012

Following her remarks, the President of the Senior Class will pass the lantern that signifies continuity to the Class of 2013, represented by Alexa Dow.

William H. Vanderstraaten '82

Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!

Following “Varsity,” all candidates will remain standing.

As soon as the platform party is organized in a central aisle, ushers will help guests assemble on both sides of the diagonal walk to Dallas Hall.

As the guests fill the walkways, the platform party will lead the Rotunda Recessional. Marshals will organize the candidates’ march.
