

Meadows School of the Arts

International Program Development Application

Applications to Greg Warden (Rolling)

These grants are intended for faculty members who need funding to pursue the development of new international programs or to enhance significantly the scope of current programs. Applications must be coordinated with the International Office of the university. Priority will be given to applications that enhance the geographical and methodological diversity of SMU's undergraduate Study Abroad opportunities.

Application (to Greg Warden, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs)

Name _____

SMU ID #: _____

Division: _____

Rank: _____

Proposed location of program:

Proposed beginning date of program:

PART I.

Type of program (semester, interterm, summer, exchange): _____

Undergraduate, graduate, or both? _____

Will students need to study a foreign language before enrolling? _____

What Meadows areas could participate in this program?

Type of curriculum (and please explain how the curriculum fits the international location):

List any faculty members who might participate in this program.

How does this program further the programmatic goals of your division?

Explain in detail the program rationale, including how the program would work as a globalizing intercultural experience for students.

What are the learning outcomes of the program?

PART II.

When do you propose to travel?

Travel costs: Be sure to append a detailed budget and itinerary. Budgeted costs should not exceed US government per-diems (available on line).

Total cost: _____

Amount requested from Meadows: _____

Will you receive any outside support or remuneration while on this trip? If so, explain.

Will you be performing services (teaching, research, consulting, etc.) for any outside entities while on this trip? If so, explain.

Have you discussed this proposal with the International Center?

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Signature of Division Chair: _____ Date: _____