

FACULTY APPOINTMENT IN THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY

Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, seeks a faculty member in the History of Christianity #052055, with particular attention in early modern Christianity, preferably the Reformation Period. This is a full-time, tenure eligible appointment at the rank of assistant professor. The appointee will regularly teach foundational courses on the history of Christianity as well as more specialized courses on appropriate topics in the various degree programs of Perkins School of Theology, and will also teach M.A. and Ph.D. students in the Graduate Program in Religious Studies of Dedman College. Essential qualifications include: a Ph.D. or equivalent degree; demonstrated achievement or significant promise as a scholar in the field of church history; and the readiness and ability to relate to the study of the history of Christianity to preparation for faithful leadership in Christian ministry. Knowledge of current theoretical debates in the study of culture and history and knowledge of inter-religions and intercultural contact and conflicts are desirable. Position begins with the fall term of 2013. Apply online at <http://www.interfolio.com/apply/11540> To ensure full consideration the application must be submitted by October 31, 2012, but the committee will continue to accept applications until the position is filled. The committee will notify applicants of its employment decision after the position is filled. Hiring is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background check. To view the full job description, visit our website at <http://www.smu.edu/Perkins/FacultyAcademics/FacultyOpenings>. Send inquiries to scarroll@smu.edu. Southern Methodist University will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status. SMU's commitment to equal opportunity includes nondiscrimination on the basis of sexual orientation.