

Truman Arnold is the founder and chairman of the Board of Truman Arnold Companies (TAC), a privately-owned regional petroleum marketing and aviation fixed-based operations company. Truman has served on the National Petroleum Advisory Council, past president of the Petroleum Marketing Educational Foundation, former majority shareholder and chairman of the Executive Committee of Century Bank, chairman of the Board of Directors of St. Michael Health Care Systems, trustee of the Board of Directors of Opportunities, Inc., chairman of the Board of Directors of Texarkana College Foundation Board, president of Texarkana Chamber of Commerce, served on the Board of Regents for both Texarkana Community College and Lamar University, and received an Honorary Doctorate of Leadership from Texas A&M University-Texarkana in 2007.

Anita Arnold is the executive vice president of Truman Arnold Companies. Anita has been active in a number of charitable, cultural, & community organizations. This includes her service as a Trustee for the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., where she chaired the Education Committee as well as serving on several other committees including the Board of Directors of Opportunities, Inc., a private charitable foundation that provides developmental support to children and adults with specialized needs in Southwest Arkansas and Northeast Texas. Anita has also served as a board member for Clinton School of Public Service, Women for Texas A&M – Texarkana, The Texas Committee for Humanities, Century Bank, Baylor Health Care System Foundation, Willis M. Tate Distinguished Lecture Series Board, and received an Honorary Doctorate of Leadership from Texas A&M University-Texarkana in 2007.