“Timothy Bowman has done a great service by making this seminal report available to a new generation, and his lucid notes and introduction make it accessible for specialists and general readers alike.”
Brian Delay, author of War of a Thousand Deserts: Indian Raids and the U.S.-Mexican War (Yale University Press, 2008)

“At long last, the most important single document for the study of the U.S.-Mexico border has been republished.”

“Anyone desiring a thorough and objective understanding of the often confusing history of the Texas-Mexico border in the nineteenth century will want this indispensable book. “
Jerry Thompson, author of Cortina: Defending the Mexican Name in Texas (Texas A&M University Press, 2007)
