

DEDMAN COLLEGE
UNDERGRADUATE COUNCIL
Minutes from November 18, 2003

The Undergraduate Council met on Tuesday, November 18, 2003, at 11:00 a.m. in 121 Dallas Hall. Present: Dean Kathy Hayes, Mary Helen Acosta (Assistant to Dean Lisa Johnston), Professors Christine Buchanan, Eric Barnes, Kathleen Wellman and Mike Lattman; and student representative, Art Bell. Guest: Professor Carolyn Smith-Morris.

The minutes for the October 21, 2003, meeting were approved.

New Course Proposal: ANTH 4303: Political Economy of Health
Professor Smith-Morris attended the meeting to answer questions regarding this course proposal. The course proposal was approved.

Proposal for Individualized Major in Women's Studies for Amy Dominguez

Ms. Dominguez submitted a table of the courses that counted for each of her three majors that clearly showed the courses that were and were not cross-listed. She also listed the classes she plans to enroll in for spring 2004. Three courses are exclusively for Women's Studies, one more than requested by the Undergraduate Council. The Council voted to approve this proposal.

Proposal for Individualized Major in Women's Studies for Randall Hubach

Mr. Hubach submitted his proposal for an Individualized Major in Women's Studies. He would like this major in addition to his History major. The Council voted to approve the proposal.

Announcements:

- BIOL 1310: Aquatic Biology of the Southern Rocky Mountains was approved by email vote.
- Dean Hayes approved the removal of the lab component of PSYC 3382: Experimental Psychology
- Dean Hayes approved the removal of the lab component of MATH 1307: Introduction to Mathematical Sciences
- After communications with the Registrar's Office and Public Affairs (catalog contact person), Dean Neel has set the title limit to 30 spaces. The word description limit will remain at 30 words.

The meeting adjourned at 11:25 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

David Wilson
