

AN INVITATION

Four years ago, academic and government leaders met with multi-industry professionals at SMU to craft a vision for advanced studies in sustainability and design. Here is that vision – an educational platform to DESIGN CHANGE.

Please join us to launch our new Master of Arts in Sustainability and Development from the SMU Lyle School of Engineering, aligned with the Hunt Institute for Engineering & Humanity.

THE DETAILS

date/time: Friday, Dec. 9, 2011 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

location: Vester Hughes Auditorium
SMU Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering
Caruth Hall
3145 Dyer Street Dallas, TX 75205

amenities: Light Lunch
Palmer Conference Center
Caruth Hall

parking: Bishop Boulevard

rsvp: Executive@SMU.edu
214.768.1403

THE PROGRAM

Peter Bishop
First Director of Design for London
“A Shaper of Cities”

interviewed by:

Jeffrey Ball
Scholar in Residence, Stanford
Former Environmental Editor, The Wall Street Journal

presenters:

Mary Suhm
City Manager
City of Dallas

Brent Brown
Founding Director
Dallas CityDesign Studio

Betsy del Monte
Principal and Director of Sustainability
The Beck Group
Adjunct Professor, SMU Lyle School of Engineering

Stephanie Hunt
Co-Founder
Hunt Institute for Engineering and Humanity

Design Change

master of arts in sustainability and development

create a better world

SMU

BOBBY B. LYLE
SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

CIVIL AND ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING

HUNT INSTITUTE FOR ENGINEERING AND HUMANITY