

FOURTH YEAR
PRE-CLASS WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT

PERKINS COURSE OF STUDY SCHOOL – 2014

(412) WESLEYAN MOVEMENT

Bishop Max Whitfield

dwhitfield@smu.edu

214.768.1200

Critical reflection upon significant individuals, decisive events, and fundamental tenets of the Christian faith as found in the development of United Methodism. Utilizing categories of grace and faith as a focusing lens, the student appropriates particulars of the Wesleyan heritage and enters into the Church's ongoing task of interpreting, articulating, and enacting the gospel in contemporary life.

Assignments:

Answer questions numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, and 9 in concise essays of about 250 words each (one page typed double spaced). Answer either question number 5 or number 6 in an essay of about 700 words (three pages typed, double spaced). Answer question number 10 with responses of one to three sentences each.

1. Discuss the ecclesiastical situation in England at the beginning of the Eighteenth Century. Identify (a) Anglican, (b) Calvinist, (c) Nonconformist, (d) Pietist, (e) Puritan. REFERENCE: Heitzenrater, Chapter 1.
2. Discuss the growth of English Methodism from 1740 to Wesley's death, showing the emergence of structures of governance and ways of discipline. Why did Wesley's revival endure to become a church while Whitefield's revival left no such residue? REFERENCE: Heitzenrater, Chapters 3-5.
3. What were Wesley's main disagreements with (1) the Church of England (b) the Calvinists (c) the Moravians? REFERENCE: Heitzenrater, Chapters 2-6; Norwood, Chapters 1-5.
4. How do the elements of scripture, tradition, reason, and experience fit together in forming a basis for Christian belief? Relate what each meant in Wesley's own faith journey. REFERENCE: Discipline, pp. 76-86; Heitzenrater, Chapter 1; Maddox, Chapter 1.
5. The "Order of Salvation" is a sequence of occurrences which Wesley believed was the way God acts in the salvation process. Among its components are Assurance, Christian Perfection (also called Holiness and Entire Sanctification), Faith, Justifying Grace (or Justification), New Birth, Original Sin, Prevenient Grace, Repentance, and Sanctifying Grace (or Sanctification). Very briefly explain each and place them in logical (or chronological) sequence. REFERENCE: Discipline, pp. 41-71; Heitzenrater, Chapter 5; Maddox, Introduction and Chapters 6-7. Hymnal, general organization of hymns 336-536 (see the table of contents of the Hymnal and the page headings on these pages).
6. Maddox says (page 19) "Without God's grace, we cannot be saved, while without our (grace-empowered, but not coerced) participation, God's grace will not save." What issue is he addressing here, and why does he say what he says? REFERENCE: Maddox and Heitzenrater, passim. How do hymns in The United Methodist Hymnal reflect our reliance on divine grace?
7. Discuss the establishment of the Methodist movement in America, concluding with an accounting of why a new church emerged from this mission so soon after its founding. (1760-1784) REFERENCE: Heitzenrater, Chapters 5-6, Norwood, Chapters 5-10.

8. Discuss the issues of (1) race/ethnicity and (2) slavery as debated among American Methodists in the 18th and 19th centuries. How did this debate work out in the practical life of the church? Remember that race here does not refer only to divisions of black and white. REFERENCE: Norwood, Chapters 9-10, 15, 17-18, 21-25 and others.
9. Discuss the mergers of the 20th Century among American Wesleyan denominations. REFERENCE: Norwood Chapters 31-38.
10. Identify briefly the following: REFERENCE: Any or all of the materials assigned.
 - a. Christmas Conference
 - b. Love feast
 - c. Frances Willard
 - d. Central Jurisdiction
 - e. Epworth
 - f. Peter Böhler
 - g. Social Gospel
 - h. Arminianism
 - i. Milton Wright
 - j. Fanny Crosby

Syllabus and Course Schedule

Assignments and Grading

Pre-Class Assignment. Each student will have completed a pre-class assignment before arriving.

Quizzes. Students will complete two forty-five minute quizzes in class. During each quiz, students will have access to the UM Discipline, the UM Hymnal, and five pages of notes to use in responding to the quiz. Each quiz will consist of either a) eight short-identification questions from which the student will choose five to write on, or b) one essay question. Students will write in blue books (exam books), which will be provided.

Essay. Each student will complete an essay of between six and ten pages in length, formally documented according to standard formats for research documentation, answering the following question from the United Methodist Discipline with specific reference to the Wesleyan spiritual and theological tradition:

How do you understand the following traditional Wesleyan –
Evangelical doctrines:

(a) repentance; (b) justification; (c) regeneration; (d) sanctification?

What are the marks of the Christian life? [United Methodist Discipline 2012, ¶ 335]

Essays should contain explicit reference to the writings of John and Charles Wesley, theological works interpreting this theological inheritance, (e.g. Maddox, Responsible Grace, the United Methodist Discipline, Hymnal, etc.)

Warning: Properly cite all your sources. The instructor regularly checks for plagiarism. All assignments must be turned in on time. COSS policy does not permit acceptance of late work nor may we post incomplete grades.

Grading. Course grades will be assigned on the basis of the following formula:

Pre-Assignment	30%
First Quiz	20%
Second Quiz	20%
Essay	20%
Participation	10%
Total:	100%

Extra Credit. Up to 10% may be added to the total grade, not to exceed 100%, by writing an original plan for a group study on the Wesleyan movement. The plan will list course outcomes, ten well-developed lesson outlines, and one complete lesson. The entire project must be between three and five pages, no more – no less. This is due no later than the last day of the class.

In order for an extension request to be considered, the student must be fully registered (i.e., fees paid, signatures acquired, Release of Liability and Course Registration and Housing forms filled out and submitted). Before a decision can be made regarding an extension, the Director will consult with the student's district superintendent, local pastor registrar and instructor.

Optional Electronic Submission for Pre Class Assignments

Course of Study School Lockers

We are offering an alternate method for the submission of pre-class assignments. The Course of Study School is using a "Locker System", Locker.SMU. This system allows COSS students to submit their pre-class assignments electronically. Please remember that we will continue to accept mailed in paper pre-class assignments. Electronic submissions and the use of Locker.SMU is optional.

A Locker will be assigned to each student for each class they are taking. For example, if you are taking Hebrew Bible I (211) and Formation Discipleship (213) you will be assigned two different Lockers. The instructor for each course will then be able to log in to the Locker System and retrieve your submitted assignments for each particular class.

When your registration is received, the Course of Study School staff will be creating your private Locker(s) and informing you via e-mail when your Locker(s) has been successfully created. In this email, you will receive specific instructions on how to access your Locker(s) and how to upload your assignments.

If you have not registered by May 15th, you will not be guaranteed a locker and you will need to submit your pre-class assignments via postal service.

The Locker System will automatically date and time stamp your submitted assignments to inform the instructor and the Course of Study School staff when the assignment was submitted.

The pre-class assignments should be submitted to the Locker System ONLY in .doc format.

When you are ready to submit your pre-class assignments online, but have not received an e-mail with information on how to access your private Locker(s), please contact the Course of Study School staff at COSS@smu.edu with the subject line: Locker Access. The Course of Study School staff will then reply with specific instructions on how to access your Locker(s) and how to upload your assignments.

The completed pre-class work for courses 211-514 must be submitted to the Locker System no later than May 15th at 11:59:59 p.m. Pre-class work submitted to the Locker System after May 15 will incur grading penalties as mentioned above on the grading guidelines. The same deadline restrictions apply whether you are submitting pre-class assignments electronically or via postal service.

Students should keep a printed copy of each assignment and bring a copy of each assignment to class regardless of how the assignment was submitted.

In addition, students should include a one-page autobiography for each instructor.

Each assignment should be typed, double-spaced, or legibly handwritten, with pagination numbers, and be accompanied by a completed cover sheet. A copy of the cover sheet can be found in the Course of Study School Catalogue and can be photocopied, it will also appear as a preloaded file when you access your locker.

Guidelines for writing pre-class assignments and information on academic dishonesty are provided in the Course of Study School catalog, available on the website. Students are expected to understand what constitutes plagiarism. Students who are found to plagiarize are subject to grading penalties, which may include dismissal from the school.
