

Requests for room changes cannot be handled at check-in and must wait until Monday. Such requests must be made in writing through the COSS office. There may be a fee for room changes.

Students residing in the residence halls will be eating on campus and have their meal plans included. The SMU meal plan ensures that students will have available to them regular meals at University dining halls during their stay as well as an average $10 per week flex cash for use at the Hughes-Trigg Student Center for snacks and fast food options, not for personal non-food items. Unused credits are nonrefundable.

Students with a meal plan are provided a Val-e-Dine card upon check-in. There is a $10 charge for lost cards. Meals are served for the Course of Study beginning Monday. Breakfast will be served from 7:00–8:00 a.m. Lunch is served from 12:30–1:30 p.m., and dinner is served from 5:00–7:00 p.m. Meal service ends with dinner on the Thursday of the last night of your stay. ☘
