

The Youth Ministries Department of Custer Road United Methodist Church is excited to announce the creation of a new full-time position within this growing and thriving ministry. Custer Road UMC is a large church located in Plano, Texas, a Dallas suburb, which recognizes the importance of Youth Ministry and places great emphasis on its success. We take pride in our creativity in programming, worship, and mission experiences and strive to be at the forefront of youth ministry.

We are searching for a dynamic individual with a heart for working on a team whose primary function is for God to be revealed. Working in collaboration with our Youth Ministry staff, and under the direction of the Director of Youth Ministries, the ideal candidate would possess the attributes listed below. The adaptability of our staff allows the flexibility to craft a position that best fits your own spiritual gifts. Additionally, this position will have a particular focus on the nurture and care for high school girls.

The ideal candidate will...

- Exhibit a life of Christian integrity in the home and community.
- Possess a passion to live, teach, and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Understand relational youth ministry.
- Be an outgoing, approachable, collaborative self-starter who possesses good communication skills.
- Be able to relate and interact with a strong team of dedicated volunteers.
- Be skilled in writing curriculum.
- Have the ability to speak and preach well.
- Have understanding and articulation of Wesley theology.
