

Justice Revival is a three-day gathering at Dallas Market Hall on November 10-12 whose purpose is to address issues of homelessness and public education from a biblical perspective. The event is hosted by Sojourners and the Foundation for Community Empowerment.

The gathering will include engaging worship (led by Israel Houghton & New Breed, Jaci Velasquez, Salvador, and Fred Hammond) and a clear call to justice, with addresses and sermons by Jim Wallis, Rev. Samuel Rodriguez, Dr. Lauren Winner, Dr. Zan Holmes, Jr., Senior Pastor emeritus of St. Luke “Community” UMC in Dallas, and Dallas Mayor Tom Leppert.

Among the presenters for the week is Dr. Joerg Rieger, who will lead a workshop titled “Social Justice vs. Social Service: What is the Difference?” Further, Perkins School of Theology will be represented in the Ignite Greater Works Exhibit Hall at the event, hosting a display inviting further connections between the school and the greater Dallas community.

Dallas Market Hall is located at 2200 Stemmons Freeway in Dallas. Admission to Justice Revival is free and open to the public. For more information or to register, visit www.justicerevival.org.
