Course Description:

This course is an advanced study of the major theories in the field of counseling, as well as an exploration of the historical perspectives and philosophies upon which they are based. Theories to be addressed include: (a) Classical Psychoanalysis, (b) post-Freudian psychoanalytic/dynamic approaches, (c) Individual Psychology, (d) Person-Centered Therapy, (e) Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy, (f) Behavior Therapy, (g) Cognitive Therapy, and (h) Gestalt Therapy. A special emphasis will be placed on the axiom, "know thyself."

Required Text:

Sharf, Richard S. (2012). Theories of psychotherapy and counseling: Concepts and cases, 5th ed. Belmont, CA: Brooks/Cole. ISBN-13: 978-0840033666.

Methods of instruction:

This may sound odd coming from a professor, but I do not presume to be able to "teach" you counseling theories. I believe that learning is a self-initiated, life-long process of personal discovery. Therefore, I commit only to provide you some of the conditions that will encourage your involvement in and facilitate your learning about both this fascinating subject and about yourself. The degree to which you become involved in the learning environment I strive to create will be a function of your own goals for this course and the responsibility and initiative you assume for implementing them. I hope to facilitate your involvement and learning in this course by means of: (a) in-class lecture, (b) in-class discussion and small-group work, (c) films and video tapes, (d) out-of-class reading and writing assignments, and (e) quizzes and exams.

Course Requirements:

1. Weekly quizzes over assigned reading: 25%.

Approximately 8 quizzes will be given during each class meeting after the first meeting. Quiz material will be based upon class discussion and on the reading(s) assigned the previous week.

Extra credit of up to 20 points will be added to each quiz if a written outline of and/or notes for the corresponding chapter are turned in prior to the quiz.

Grading criterion: percentage of correct responses, plus any extra credit earned. The average of all quizzes/extra credit will count toward 25% of your grade in this course.

2. Examinations: 50% (total)

September 10: Midterm Exam (25%) covering chapters 2, 3, 4, and 8.

October 8: Final Exam (25%) covering chapters 6, 7, 9, and 10.

Examinations will consist of approximately 100 multiple choice items. The Midterm and Final examinations cover all reading assignments, lectures, and class discussions prior to the date of the examination. In taking the exams, you will demonstrate that you have: (a) done the assigned readings, (b) participated in class discussion, and (c) understood and synthesized the material presented.

Grading criterion: Percentage of correct responses.

3. Counseling Theory / Personal Exploration Paper: 25%

Due date: October 8

Counseling Theory / Personal Exploration Paper Grading Rubric and Criteria
	100-90	89-83	82 &amp; Below
Depth of Thought &amp; Analysis  20%	Groundwork is clearly laid out for the direction of the paper. Author makes succinct, insightful conclusions based on the review.	Readers are introduced to the overall topic. Remarks show some degree of analysis, though not all thoughts are supported in body of paper.	Neither implicit nor explicit reference is made to topic. No indication author applied much thought to the paper.
Synthesis &amp; Congruency  20%	Transitions tie sections together as well as adjacent paragraphs. Paper flows from general ideas to specific conclusions.	There is a basic flow from one section to the next, but not all sections or paragraphs fall in a natural or logical order.	The paper appears to have no direction, with subtopics appearing disjointed.
Thoroughness  20%	The appropriate content is covered in depth without being redundant. There is a clear effort to integrate a personality theory into the student's personality development.	Pertinent content is not covered in as much depth, or as explicit, as expected. Some integration of theory with personality development.	Major sections of pertinent content have been omitted, glossed over, or unnecessarily repeated. Weak effort to integration theory and development.
Personalization  20%	Writer integrates examples from his or her own life in relation to the content.	There is some attempt on the writer's part to utilize personal examples within the content.	There are no examples from the writer's personal experience expressed in the content.
Clarity of Writing and Mechanics  20%	Writing is crisp, clear, and succinct. Writer incorporates creative voice when appropriate. No spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors are made.	Writing is generally clear, but unnecessary words are occasionally used. Meaning is sometimes hidden. A few spelling, grammar or punctuation errors are made.	It is hard to know what the writer is trying to express. Writing is convoluted. Frequent misspellings, incorrect grammar, punctuation.

Overall Grading Criteria

SMU grades are recorded as A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-. (A= 93-100, A- = 90-92, B+ = 87-89, B = 83-86, B- = 80 – 82, and any C is 79 or below).

In the Counseling Department, any grade below a B- is considered unacceptable, and a student receiving such a grade would be required to repeat that particular course.

Grade	Performance Description	Range	GPA	Points
A	Exceptional	93 – 100	4.0	12.0
A-	High Pass	90 – 92	3.7	11.1
B+	High Pass	87 – 89	3.3	9.9
B	Pass	83 – 86	3.0	9.0
B-	Low Pass	80 – 82	2.7	8.1
C+	Failure, any C or below	77 – 79	2.3	6.9
C		73 – 76	2.0	6.0
C-		70 – 72	1.7	5.1
D+		67 – 69	1.3	3.9

Learning Objective	Measurable Outcome
Demonstrate appropriate knowledge of the philosophical and historical underpinnings of the counseling theories presented.	Students will demonstrate these skills during class discussion, exams, and their theory comparison paper.
Recognize and understand the concepts and components of the various counseling theories to be studied as noted in the course description.	Students will exhibit these abilities through oral discourse during class and group discussion, as well as on exams and on the theory comparison paper.
Develop an understanding of and an appreciation for the role of human development, human behavior, cultural background, and multicultural issues in counseling.	Students will demonstrate these skills during class discussion, exams, and in their theory comparison paper.

Grade of Incomplete. A student may receive a grade of “I” (Incomplete) if at least 50 percent of the course requirements have been completed with passing grades, but for some justifiable reason, acceptable to the instructor, the student has been unable to complete the full requirements of the course. At the time a grade of “I” is given, the instructor must stipulate in writing to the student and to the University registrar the requirements and completion date that are to be met and the grade that will be given if the requirements are not met by the completion date. The maximum period of time allowed to clear the grade of “I” is normally 12 months. If the Incomplete grade is not cleared by the date set by the instructor or by the end of the 12-month Policies and Procedures 25 deadline, the grade of “I” will be changed to the grade provided by the instructor at the time the Incomplete grade was assigned or to a grade of F if no alternate grade was provided. The grade of “I” is not given in lieu of a grade of F or W, or other grade, each of which is prescribed for other specific circumstances. If the student’s work is incomplete, poor quality and not acceptable, a grade of F will be given. The grade of “I” does not authorize a student to attend the course during a later term. Graduation candidates must clear all Incomplete grades prior to the deadline in the Official University Calendar, which may allow less time than 12 months. Failure to do so can result in removal from the degree candidacy list and/or conversion of the grade of “I” to the grade indicated by the instructor at the time the grade of “I” was given.

For graduate students, a maximum of two (six hours) concurrently held grades of Incomplete in courses other than thesis is allowed. If this maximum is reached, the student will be allowed to take only one three-hour course per term until the Incomplete total is reduced.

Students who accumulate a total of three grades of Incomplete in courses other than thesis will be put on probation and not allowed to enroll further until the total is reduced.

Absences: If you are absent, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate or your instructor in case we have adjustments in our schedule.

Statement on Attendance: Instructors should be given 24 hours' notice of any absence whenever possible. Students are responsible for all assigned material, whether or not the student attends all class meetings. If a student must miss class, it is the student's responsibility to contact a classmate to get all material and assignments covered during their absence. A student's final grade will be reduced by one letter grade if two absences occur. A student missing more than two classes, at the instructor's discretion, may: (a) Receive a grade of Incomplete if the requirements to do so have been met; (b) Receive a non-passing grade for the course, i.e., a C or lower; and/or (c) Drop the course or withdraw from the University. (This option may have a financial and/or financial aid impact. Students should refer to the department Add/Drop Policy and the Withdrawal Policy: <http://smu.edu/education/counseling/AcademicCalendar2011-12.asp> then consult with the Program Specialist)

Disability Accommodations: Students needing academic accommodations for a disability must first contact Disability Accommodations & Success Strategies (DASS) at 214-768-1470 or www.smu.edu/alec/dass.asp to verify the disability and to establish eligibility for accommodations. They should then schedule an appointment with the professor to make appropriate arrangements. (See University Policy No. 2.4; an attachment describes the DASS procedures and relocated office.)

Religious observance: Religiously observant students wishing to be absent on holidays that require missing class should notify their professors in writing at the beginning of the semester, and should discuss with them, in advance, acceptable ways of making up any work missed because of the absence. (See university Policy No. 1.9)

Excused Absences for University Extracurricular Activities: Students participating in an officially sanctioned, scheduled university extracurricular activity will be given the opportunity to make up class assignments or other graded assignments missed as result of their participation. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements with the instructor prior to any missed scheduled examination or other missed assignment for making up the work. (University Undergraduate Catalogue)

Statement on Confidentiality and Emotional Safety: In order to provide a safe learning environment for students in the class and to protect the confidentiality of practice clients and class members, students will discuss case material and other's personal information, reactions, etc. only while in class or privately with other current class members. Although the nature of the counseling program invites and expects students to confront themselves in order to maximize personal growth, each student is ultimately responsible for what he or she chooses to share in class, knowing that he or she has the right to pass on any activity or discussion that seems too personal. It is also the responsibility of each class member to treat classmates with respect and integrity, thus providing emotional safety for each other during class activities. All students in the Counseling Department will demonstrate behavior that is consistent with the Ethical Standards forwarded by the APA and ACA in their code of ethics. Failure to do so can result in termination from the Department.

Statement on Class Decorum: Please turn off (or set on vibrate) all cell phones or pagers. Please do not read newspapers, books for other classes, or other outside reading material during class, or use laptops for non-class related activities during class. Walking into class late is disruptive, as is leaving early, so please avoid this whenever possible. If you have to leave early, make arrangements before class begins, and then when you leave, do so quietly. Professional respect and courtesy for your fellow students is expected at all times.

Statement on Academic Integrity: Students are reminded of the SMU Honor Code as referenced in the Student Handbook. Intellectual integrity and academic honesty are both the foundation and the goals for this program. Please reference and review the University policies on the responsibilities, policies, and penalties regarding academic honesty found at: http://www.smu.edu/studentlife/PCL\_05\_HC.asp

Statement on APA Guidelines: Students are expected to have a high degree of familiarity with the current APA publication manual and its requirements. Plagiarism is plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional. The term ‘plagiarism’ includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. Plagiarism also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. Penalties can include reducing or changing a grade or issuing a failing grade for an assignment/test, or for the entire course, up to potential expulsion from the academic program and the university. A student penalized for academic misconduct has the right of appeal. SMU counseling program students should be prepared to submit papers and other written work electronically so that the instructor can use anti-plagiarism software to validate the originality of the student’s work. Students also have access to these plagiarism prevention tools and are strongly encouraged to utilize these resources.

Following are some general guidelines to reduce the risk of plagiarism: (a) Always cite the source of a direct quotation or paraphrased material from another source. (b) When quoting, copy the original material word-for-word. If a quotation is less than 40 words, place quotation marks around it; if it is 40 or more words, indent the quote as a block. (c) Immediately follow the conclusion of a direct quotation with a citation of the author(s), year of publication, and page number(s). When paraphrasing: (a) restate concepts in substantially different words than the original material, (b) Immediately after paraphrased material, cite author(s) and year of publication, (c) If paraphrased material extends to multiple paragraphs, be sure to cite the source in each paragraph, possibly more than once, depending upon the length of paragraph.
