ATTENDANCE POLICY Attendance is crucial and class participation will be factored into the final grade. Because the role-plays are considered a crucial part of the course and students are dependent on each other for the success of these valuable learning experiences every effort should be made to be present on days the student is scheduled to participate. Failure to participate in more than one role-play will result in a failing grade.

- Your Instructor should be given 24 hours' notice of any absence whenever possible
- If a student must miss one class, it is the student's responsibility to get all material and assignments covered during their absence.
- A student's final grade will be impacted if two absences occur.

- A student missing more than two classes may, at your Instructor's discretion:
 - o receive a grade of Incomplete if the requirements to do so have been met (see the policy on Grades of Incomplete contained in this syllabus)
 - o receive a failing grade for the course
 - o drop or withdraw from the course. (This option may have a financial and/or financial aid impact. Student should refer to the Add/Drop Policy and the Withdrawal Policy for the Counseling program which can be found at http://smu.edu/education/counseling/AcademicCalendar2011-12.asp then consult with the Program Specialist if they believe this option is a possibility.)

EVALUATION/GRADING POLICY 1/4 of the final grade will be based on a short exam. (100 maximum points) 1/4 of the final grade will be based on short homework exercises. (100 maximum points) 1/4 of the final grade will be based on attendance and class participation. (100 maximum points) 1/4 of the grade will be based on the mediation roll play. (100 maximum points) I use the following grading system.(Total Maximum points that can be earned = 400)

- Attendance is mandatory and roll will be taken.
- Be quiet if you arrive late for class when you enter the classroom.
- If you have to leave class early let me know before class begins.
- Beepers and cellular phones are to be turned off during class.
- Be prepared to participate.
- Professional respect and courtesy is expected.

Disability Accommodations Students needing academic accommodations for a disability must first contact Disability Accommodations & Success Strategies (DASS) at 214-768-1470 or www.smu.edu/alec/dass.asp to verify the disability and establish eligibility for accommodations. They should then schedule an appointment with the professor to make appropriate arrangements. (See University Policy No. 2.4; an attachment describes the DASS procedures and relocated office.)

Religious Observance Religiously observant students wishing to be absent on the holidays that require missing class should notify their professors in writing at the beginning of the semester, and should discuss with them, in advance, acceptable ways of making up any work missed because of absence. (See University Policy No. 1.9.)

SMU Emergency Preparedness

As part of the federal government response to the H1N1 (Swine Flu) virus, the Department of Health and Human Services issued a nationwide public health emergency preparedness declaration on April 26, 2009. The declaration was renewed on July 23, 2009 and is currently in force. For the semester ahead, there is concern that the level and intensity of flu cases could increase substantially.

- 1) For updates on the campus-wide status of flu conditions at SMU, please visit http://www.smu.edu.
- 2) If flu conditions require cancellation of a class session or other changes for this course, an email will be sent to all class members.
- 3) In the event of a major campus emergency at SMU, course requirements, deadlines, and grading percentages are subject to changes that may be necessitated by a revised semester calendar or other circumstances beyond the instructor's control.

Grade of Incomplete

A student may receive a grade of I (Incomplete) if at least 50 percent of the course requirements have been completed with passing grades, but for some justifiable reason, acceptable to the instructor, the student has been unable to complete the full requirements of the course. At the time a grade of I is given, the instructor must stipulate in writing to the student and to the University registrar the requirements and completion date that are to be met and the grade that will be given if the requirements are not met by the completion date. The maximum period of time allowed to clear the Incomplete grade normally is 12 months. If the Incomplete grade is not cleared by the date set by the instructor or by the end of the 12-month Policies and Procedures 25 deadline, the grade of I will be changed to the grade provided by the instructor at the time the Incomplete grade was assigned or to a grade of F if no alternate grade was provided. The grade of I is not given in lieu of a grade of F or W, or other grade, each of which is prescribed for other specific circumstances.

If the student's work is incomplete, poor quality and not acceptable, a grade of F will be given. The grade of I does not authorize a student to attend the course during a later term. Graduation candidates must clear all Incomplete grades prior to the deadline in the Official University Calendar, which may allow less time than 12 months. Failure to do so can result in removal from the degree candidacy list and/or conversion of the grade of I to the grade indicated by the instructor at the time the grade of I was given.

For graduate students, a maximum of two (six hours) concurrently held grades of Incomplete in courses other than thesis is allowed. If this maximum is reached, the student will be allowed to take only one three-hour course per term until the Incomplete total is reduced. Students who accumulate a total of three grades of Incomplete in courses other than thesis will be put on probation and not allowed to enroll further until the total is reduced.
