

“Excellence in Service” Award 2012-2013 Nomination Information

The Community Engagement & Leadership Center annually honors student organizations who have made outstanding contributions in the greater Dallas community and beyond through their service activities. The award is presented to a student organization that has impacted the community through hands-on service (excludes philanthropy) and whose efforts merit recognition by the University community.

The recipient of the award will be announced at the Awards Extravaganza on Monday, April 15, 2013 at 7:30pm in the Hughes-Trigg Ballroom. Please plan to have a representative from your organization attend.
