ALL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS INVITED

Teambuilder du Jour—Picnic

The facilitator of this activity says “I’m having a picnic—but you can only come if you bring the right thing!” Ask group members to take turns and say “My name is _____ and I’m bringing _____.” If they say that they are bringing an item that starts with the same letter as their name (i.e. Lauren brings lemons), the facilitator says “welcome to my picnic!” If the item they bring starts with a different letter, the facilitator says “sorry, you can’t come.” See how long it takes the group to figure out the “rule,” and discuss the feelings of boredom, apathy, agitation, and frustration that may arise, as well as the importance of communicating expectations.
