POLICY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, FALL 2012

Withdrawal Procedures: The last day to withdraw from the University is November 2, 2012.

Students desiring to withdraw from the University must initiate a Student Petition for Withdrawal/Cancellation form, secure approval from their academic dean, obtain authorization from Student Account Services within the Division of Enrollment Services, and submit the form to the University Registrar. The medical director, psychiatric director, counseling and testing director, or vice president for student affairs must authorize medical withdrawals. Authorization must be obtained no later than the University's withdrawal deadline for the term.

A student who officially cancels his/her enrollment or withdraws from the University is charged only a portion of tuition and fees based on the effective date of the cancellation/withdrawal. Please refer below for the percentage of tuition refund.

By living in an SMU-in-Taos residence hall, I am residing in a living and learning community. As a member of this community, I have certain rights as a resident and a student. I recognize that other members of the community have the same rights. For this reason, it is important to compromise to maintain an environment in which all members of the community may grow as individuals and may pursue learning as a fundamental part of the campus residential experience.

As a member of the SMU-in-Taos community, I agree to uphold the SMU Code of Conduct, SMU Policies for Community Life, and all University Policies, as well as Local, State, and Federal laws. I understand that if I am found responsible for a violation of any codes, standards, or policies, including passive participation, I will be subject to sanction or disciplinary action.

Housing assignments are based upon many factors. Students may request housing and, if possible, assigned per request.

I have read and agree to abide by the above stated policies and all policies in effect on the SMU-in-Taos, Fort Burgwin campus. I agree to keep the SMU-in-Taos Office informed of any changes that might affect my attendance at Fort Burgwin for the fall 2012 semester.
