Function and Specialization

Scott serves as partner in charge of recruiting in the Southwest area.

Education, Licenses & Certifications

- Bachelors degree in business from Southern Methodist University
- MBA in accounting from Southern Methodist University.

Background

In 2002, Scott joined KPMG LLP where he serves as partner in charge for recruiting in the Southwest area. His reputation is one of developing creative environments to recruit and retain key personnel for growth and outstanding client service by maintaining low attrition rates.

Professional and Industry Experience

With more than 32 years of experience in public accounting, Scott Wilson has distinguished himself as an innovator in talent recruitment and professional organization alliances. He started his career in the audit and business advisory practice of Arthur Andersen LLP in 1975.

Concurrent with his active professional career, Scott consistently demonstrates his commitment through active civic and non-profit leadership. He has served on the board of Central Dallas Association, and INROADS, which supports minority youth career development. Scott also has served on the accounting advisory boards of both SMU and the University of Texas at Dallas. Since 1997, he volunteers annually for a cancer research fundraiser, Links for Leukemia, that was founded in memory of an Andersen colleague.

Since 1990, Scott has focused the majority of his community service efforts and attention on the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas. Scott's volunteer roles with United Way provided leadership with the funding process, by serving as Chair of the Stewardship Committee and Chair of the Central Allocations Committee. Through Scott's leadership as the Chair of the Finance Committee and Treasurer of the Board, the United Way developed a solid reputation for fiscal responsibility. Scott also assumed the roles of Chair-Elect and Chair of the Board from 2004 to 2006, a period marked by increased fiscal and program accountability to the community. In 2007, he received the United Way's highest recognition, the J. Erik Jonsson Award for Volunteerism. Also this year, Scott assumed the role of Chairman of the Board for the United Way Foundation.

He has been honored by SMU's Cox School of Business as mentor of the year for the business school's Associates Program, the YWCA of Metropolitan Dallas' Mentors and Allies Award, and INROADS' Business Coordinator of the Year.
