SMU and Dallas are a great combination. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combining classic Georgian architecture, the latest in green building design and outdoor art melds well with the Dallas area ranked 6th in the country by Forbes 2019. Home to 200 companies from around the world, Dallas is a hub for finance, banking, health care and outras. Our Big D location creates big opportunities for our students. A global city, Dallas attracts companies from across five nationally recognized undergraduate schools, graduate and professional degree programs.

High achieving students come from all over the world to pursue undergraduate, graduate and professional degrees programs. SMU's 234-acre, tree-lined campus combining classic Georgian architecture, the latest in green building design and outdoor art melds well with the Dallas area ranked 6th in the country. Dallas is a hub for finance, banking, health care and opportunities for our students. A global city, Dallas attracts companies from 200 companies from around the world.
SMU and Dallas are a great combination. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, top-notch University facilities and access to the vibrant arts and recreation spaces and great food. SMU is home to 20-plus Fortune 500 companies, and Dallas is home to 1,649 companies, or substantial operations in the Dallas-Fort Worth region. More than 34,200 companies have their U.S. headquarters or substantial operations in the Dallas-Fort Worth region.

SMU students offer opportunities for our students. A global light for finance, banking, health care and technology, Dallas is also home to substantial research enterprises and top-notch sports and entertainment. Mustang fans show school pride with “pony ears” (using two fingers) during “The Boulevard.”

SMU’s official school colors are red and blue. “The truth will make you free.” or, veritas liberabit vos, is found on the school’s seal. The SMU mascot is Peruna the Mustang, a black Shetland pony stallion. Mustangs are known for their “kick.” SMU competes in 23 varsity sports, 17 men’s and women’s. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, top-notch University facilities and access to the vibrant arts and recreation spaces and great food. Mustangs are known for their “kick.” SMU competes in 23 varsity sports, 17 men’s and women’s. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, top-notch University facilities and access to the vibrant arts and recreation spaces and great food. Mustangs are known for their “kick.” SMU competes in 23 varsity sports, 17 men’s and women’s. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, top-notch University facilities and access to the vibrant arts and recreation spaces and great food. Mustangs are known for their “kick.” SMU competes in 23 varsity sports, 17 men’s and women’s. SMU’s 234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, top-notch University facilities and access to the vibrant arts and recreation spaces and great food. Mustangs are known for their “kick.” SMU competes in 23 varsity sports, 17 men’s and women’s.
SMU and Dallas are a great combination. SMU’s $234-acre, tree-lined campus combines classic Georgian architecture, the latest in green building design and outdoor art melded well with Dallas’ progressive image and commitment to the arts, culture and businesses. At SMU, students experience a top-notch University in a truly international city.

SMU SPIRIT AND TRADITION

• The SMU spirit is a true Blue-and-Grey one, “The truth will make you free.”
• SMU’s official school colors are red and blue.
• SMU competes in 27 NCAA Division I sports.
• The SMU mascot is Peruna the Mustang, named after an early 20th-century black Shetland pony stallion that had a “kick.”
• Mustang fans show school pride with “pony ears” (using two fingers) during games and other events.
• SMU students enjoy a vibrant intercollegiate life, with sports options for pregame picnics on The Boulevard.
• Each fall before home football games, Mustang fans sing the school song and show school spirit in a fun, festive manner.

SMU COMPETES

SMU competes in over 30 sports, including baseball, basketball, women’s basketball, women’s soccer, men’s and women’s tennis, women’s volleyball, track and field, and cross country. SMU’s official school colors are red and blue. SMU’s academic programs are significantly enhanced by its athletics programs, which attract over 200,000 fans annually to the Cotton Bowl and 2,000,000 fans to SMU sporting events.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

SMU is known for its full and comprehensive health center, the Student Health and Counseling Center, and for its commitment to the arts, culture and business. At SMU, students can count on high-quality, compassionate care from professionals in our first-rate health center.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

• Wellness and mental health resources are easy to access on all of its campuses.
• Whether battling a cold or something more serious, our nurses, doctors and counselors care for students from professionals on our first-rate health centers.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

• Wellness and mental health resources are easy to access on all of its campuses.
• Whether battling a cold or something more serious, our nurses, doctors and counselors care for students from professionals on our first-rate health centers.

SMU AND DALLAS ARE A GREAT COMBINATION. SMU’S $234-ACRE, TREE-LINED CAMPUS COMBINES CLASSIC GEORGIAN ARCHITECTURE, THE LATEST IN GREEN BUILDING DESIGN AND OUTDOOR ART MELDED WELL WITH DALLAS’ PROGRESSIVE IMAGE AND COMMITMENT TO THE ARTS, CULTURE AND BUSINESSES. AT SMU, STUDENTS EXPERIENCE A TOP-NOTCH UNIVERSITY IN A TRULY INTERNATIONAL CITY.

SMU SPIRIT AND TRADITION

• The SMU spirit is a true Blue-and-Grey one, “The truth will make you free.”
• SMU’s official school colors are red and blue.
• SMU competes in 27 NCAA Division I sports.
• The SMU mascot is Peruna the Mustang, named after an early 20th-century black Shetland pony stallion that had a “kick.”
• Mustang fans show school pride with “pony ears” (using two fingers) during games and other events.
• SMU students enjoy a vibrant intercollegiate life, with sports options for pregame picnics on The Boulevard.
• Each fall before home football games, Mustang fans sing the school song and show school spirit in a fun, festive manner.

SMU COMPETES

SMU competes in over 30 sports, including baseball, basketball, women’s basketball, women’s soccer, men’s and women’s tennis, women’s volleyball, track and field, and cross country. SMU’s official school colors are red and blue. SMU’s academic programs are significantly enhanced by its athletics programs, which attract over 200,000 fans annually to the Cotton Bowl and 2,000,000 fans to SMU sporting events.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

SMU is known for its full and comprehensive health center, the Student Health and Counseling Center, and for its commitment to the arts, culture and business. At SMU, students can count on high-quality, compassionate care from professionals in our first-rate health center.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

• Wellness and mental health resources are easy to access on all of its campuses.
• Whether battling a cold or something more serious, our nurses, doctors and counselors care for students from professionals on our first-rate health centers.

WELLNESS AND SUPPORT

• Wellness and mental health resources are easy to access on all of its campuses.
• Whether battling a cold or something more serious, our nurses, doctors and counselors care for students from professionals on our first-rate health centers.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Undergraduate Admission
214-768-2058 or 1-800-323-0672

General Information
214-768-2000

Connect With Us!

www.smu.edu/admission

SMU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. No race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability will be a basis for discrimination in the admission process. SMU is committed to maintaining a supportive environment that is free from discrimination and harassment. To file a complaint, please contact the appropriate Title IX/Equal Employment Opportunity Office.