HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

The undersigned hereby claims an exemption from payment of hotel occupancy taxes as authorized by Article 23.02(c) of the State of Texas Hotel Occupancy Tax Law. Said law grants the exemption to recognized non-profit educational organizations. Southern Methodist University is officially recognized as such an organization under IRS Code 501(C)(3).

Therefore: _____

as a traveler on business officially sanctioned by Southern Methodist University, claims the exemption.

Texas Hotel Occupancy Tax Exemption Certificate

Provide completed certificate to hotel to claim exemption from hotel tax. Hotel operators should request a photo ID, business card or other document to verify a guest's affiliation with the exempt entity. Employees of exempt entities traveling on official business can pay in any manner. For non-employees to be exempt, the exempt entity must provide a completed certificate and pay the hotel with its funds (e.g., exempt entity check, credit card or direct billing). This certificate does not need a number to be valid.

Name of exempt entity Southern Methodist University	Exempt entity status (Religious, charitable, educational, governmental) Education
Address of exempt organization (Street and number) 6425 Boaz Lane
City, State, ZIP code Dallas, TX 75205

Guest certification: I declare that I am an occupant of this hotel on official business sanctioned by the exempt organization named above and that all information shown on this document is true and correct. I further understand that it is a criminal offense to issue an exemption certificate to a hotel that I know will be used in a manner that does not qualify for the exemptions found in the hotel occupancy tax and other laws. The offense may range from a Class C misdemeanor to a felony of the second degree.

Permanent Resident Exemption (30 consecutive days): An exemption certificate is not required for the permanent resident exemption. A permanent resident is exempt the day the guest has given written notice or reserves a room for at least 30 consecutive days and the guest stays for 30 consecutive days, beginning on the reservation date. Otherwise, a permanent resident is exempt on the 31st consecutive day of the stay and is not entitled to a tax refund on the first 30 days. Any interruption in the resident's right to occupy a room voids the exemption. A permanent resident is exempt from state and local hotel tax.

Hotels should keep all records, including completed exemption certificates, for four years.

Do NOT send this form to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.
