

Kevin G. O'Brien

Kevin O'Brien is a Managing Director of CCMP Capital Advisors, LP and a member of its Investment Committee. He also participates in outside business activities and is an investor and board member at EmOpti Inc, a founder-led tele-health business focused on workflow improvements in health systems.

CCMP is a private equity firm focused on making buyout and growth equity investments in North America and Europe that, together with its predecessors, has invested $17 billion since 1984. Mr. O'Brien focuses on making investments in the industrial and healthcare sectors. In addition, Mr. O'Brien oversees the execution of all debt capital markets transactions undertaken by the firm. Mr. O'Brien has been deeply involved in, and served on the board of CCMP investments including Eating Recovery Centers (eating disorder treatment), CareMore Medical Enterprises (Medicare Advantage health plan), LHP Hospital Group (short-term acute care hospital company focused on JVs with larger health systems), Medpace (contract research organization focused on human trials primarily for biotech companies), National Surgical Care (ambulatory surgery centers), Infogroup (marketing data services), KRATON Polymers (specialty chemicals), Pinnacle Foods Group (branded consumer packaged foods), La Petite Academy (early childhood education), and National Waterworks (distributor of underground infrastructure products).

Prior to joining JP Morgan Partners, CCMP's predecessor firm, in 2000, Mr. O'Brien worked in investment banking in the high yield capital markets and banking groups at Chase Securities and Chemical Securities.

Prior to that, he was as a Commissioned Officer in the U.S. Navy from 1988 to 1992 where he served as a Surface Warfare Officer on the USS Nicholas (FFG-47) and participated in combat operations associated with Operation Desert Storm.

Mr. O'Brien holds a B.A. from the University of Notre Dame and an M.B.A. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
