THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Stephen W. Rankin
Chaplain and Minister to the University

PSALM 145: SELECTED VERSES

I will extol you, O my God and King
And I will bless your name forever and ever.
Great is the Lord and highly to be praised
And His greatness is unsearchable.
Generation after generation praises your works
And proclaims your might.
Let all your works give you thanks O Lord
And let your faithful ones bless you.
The Lord is faithful in all his words
And holy in all his works.
You open your hand
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
May my mouth speak the praise of the Lord
And may all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

INVOCATION

Judith H. Henneberger
Associate Chaplain and Minister to the University

*The congregation rises when the procession reaches the doors of the auditorium.

HYMN TO JOY

“Praise the Source of Faith and Learning”
Imperial Brass
Meadows Vocal Performance Graduates

Praise the Source of faith and learning Who has sparked and stoked the mind with a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray.

God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art and the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound
where Your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets taught.
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed lest we justify some terror with an antiquated creed.

As two currents in a river fight each other’s undertow
till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow.
Blend, O God, our faith and learning till they carve a single course, till they join as one returning, praise and thanks to You, their Source.

THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON Michael M. Boone ’63, ’67
The Main Thing Chair-elect of the SMU Board of Trustees

RESPONSIVE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Rachel Luna
Candidate for degree of Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences

Holy God, You have called us to be diligent teachers and eager learners in all that we do, both in this community and in Your larger world. Now send us forth into that world as Your willing servants.

Give us the strength lightly to bear our joys and sorrows.

Give us the strength to make our love fruitful in service.

Give us the strength never to disown the poor or bend our knees before insolent might.

Give us the strength to raise our minds high above earthly trifles.

And give us the strength to surrender our strength to Your will with love. Amen.

HYMN

“Forth in Thy Name, O Lord”
Imperial Brass
Meadows Vocal Performance Graduates

Forth in Thy name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labor to pursue;
Thee, only Thee, resolved to know
in all I think or speak or do.

The task Thy wisdom hath assigned,
O let me cheerfully fulfill;
in all my words Thy presence find,
and prove Thy good and perfect will.

Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes mine in most substance see,
and labor on at Thy command,
and offer all my works to Thee.

For Thee delightfully employ whate’er Thy bounteous grace hath given;
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with Thee to heaven.

THE BLESSINGS AND RESPONSE

Chaplain Rankin

The time has come to go forth.

Senior Class: We go in thanksgiving for all we have learned.

This is a bittersweet moment.

Senior Class: We rejoice in our growth and in bonds of friendship, even as we bid farewell.

This is a moment of anticipation.

Senior Class: We look forward with excitement, eager to embrace all that awaits us.

Go now in peace and hope, and may blessing accompany you always. Amen.

Please stay in place for the Rotunda Recessional, which will follow immediately.

THE ROTUNDA RECESSIONAL

One of the University's most symbolic traditions is Rotunda Passage, which includes both a processional and a recessional. Many of tonight's candidates for graduation began their lives at SMU by processing through the Rotunda of Dallas Hall to Opening Convocation in this auditorium, symbolizing their entrance to SMU. Tonight, all candidates will recess through the Rotunda as a symbolic departure from campus and out into their future as the newest members of the SMU Alumni family. Alumni who are parents of graduating seniors are serving as marshals for tonight's recessional. They will help line the path between McFarlin Memorial Auditorium and Dallas Hall for the recessional participants.

REMARKS

Jaywin Singh Malhi
Student Body Vice President, Class of 2014

Following his remarks, the Student Body Vice President will pass the lantern that signifies continuity to the Class of 2015, represented by Rebecca Brady.

Leslie Long Melson '77
Chair of the SMU Alumni Board

CALL TO THE RECESSIONAL

ALMA MATER

"Varsity"
Imperial Brass
Meadows Vocal Performance Graduates

Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!

Following "Varsity," all candidates will remain standing. As soon as the Platform Party is organized in a central aisle, ushers will help guests assemble on both sides of the walk to Dallas Hall. As guests fill the walkways, the Platform Party will lead the Rotunda Recessional. Marshals will organize the candidates' march.

MICHAEL M. BOONE

Michael M. Boone '63, '67 is a distinguished lawyer, community leader and dedicated SMU alumnus. He earned two degrees from SMU – a B.B.A. from Cox School of Business and a J.D. from Dedman School of Law. He is a co-founder and member of the Board of Directors of the national law firm Haynes and Boone, one of the largest and most respected law firms in the nation. Boone was selected as one of the 25 greatest Texas lawyers of the past quarter-century and named by Texas Lawyer magazine as a “Go-To-Lawyer” in Texas for corporate and business law. He was named one of the Top 10 Super Lawyers by Texas Monthly and Law and Politics magazine, among numerous other honors. Boone has been a member of the SMU Board of Trustees since 1996 and will become board chair in June 2014. He currently serves as vice chair for SMU's Second Century Celebration Organizing Committee and as a member of the Leadership Council for the Second Century Campaign and the executive committees of Dedman School of Law and Dedman College. He formerly was an adjunct professor in the law school. He has received Distinguished Alumni awards from SMU, the Dedman School of Law and the Cox School of Business. Beyond the campus, Boone has served his community in numerous roles, including as president of the Highland Park School Board and as chair of the Dallas Citizens Council.

THE SMU MCKENZIE BIBLE

The McKenzie Bible was printed in 1856 and once was the property of J.W.P. McKenzie, a pioneer in Methodist education in Texas. It was used continually by McKenzie, who established McKenzie College at Clarksville, once the largest institution of higher learning in Texas. This historic Bible was presented to SMU in 1916 by Mrs. Milton Ragsdale of Dallas, a niece of McKenzie.

The McKenzie Bible was first used at SMU's 1916 Commencement Convocation, and the University is proud to use it at tonight's Baccalaureate Service.
