Schedule: Daily 9am-12pm, 1pm-4pm
Location: SMU – Dallas, Owen Fine Arts Center 1430 and B450
Office Hour: By Appointment
E-mail: jhackler@smu.edu

Course Overview/ Learning Outcomes:

Pillars- Creativity and Aesthetics- (Level 1)
1. Students will be able to identify methods, techniques, or languages of a particular art form, creative endeavor or craft(s) and explain how those inform the creation, performance or analysis of creative work. (Level 1)
2. Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of concepts fundamental to the creative impulse through analysis, performance, or creation. (Level 1)

Proficiencies and Experiences- Oral Communication
1. Students will be able to select and use appropriate forms of evidence in a public presentation.
2. Students will be able to design verbal messages to suit particular audiences and purposes.
3. Students will be able to use visual cues (such as presentation software, staging, props, costumes, makeup, and gesture) to enhance a public presentation.

Disability Accommodations:

Students needing academic accommodations for a disability must first be registered with Disability Accommodations & Success Strategies (DASS) to verify the disability and to establish eligibility for accommodations. Students may call 214-768-1470 or visit http://www.smu.edu/ALEC/DASS to begin the process. Once registered, students should then schedule an appointment with the professor to make appropriate arrangements.

Attendance:

- There is no late admittance. Be ready to play at 9:00 A.M.
- 3 tardies will result in an unexcused absence.
- You are allowed NO unexcused absences for the class. It’s 8 DAYS! Any absence will result in the drop of one-half letter grade to your final grade of the semester. (A to A-, A- to B+, B+ to B, etc. More than three absences and you will fail the class.
- An absence is defined as missing either the morning or the afternoon section of a class. Miss a full day and that’s two absences.

Excused Absences for University Extracurricular Activities: Students involved with any University based competitions, performances or sporting team events that conflict with class time must submit all dates they will be absent by _______ (insert date)_______ in written format. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements with the instructor prior to make up for any missed class time or assignments. (University Undergraduate Catalogue)
Religious Observance: Religiously observant students wishing to be absent on holidays that require missing class should notify their professors in writing at the beginning of the semester, and should discuss with them, in advance, acceptable ways of making up any work missed because of the absence. (See University Policy No. 1.9.)

Dress Code:

Students are required to wear clothing that allows for unrestricted movement to each class. The main focus of our work takes place on our feet, so students must feel comfortable and able to move without restrictions. Try to avoid: skirts, dresses, high heels, and tight fitting clothing. Examples of appropriate clothing include, but are not limited to: workout clothing, dance attire, sweatpants, jeans, t-shirts, and sneakers.

Required Material & Text:

- Elinor Fuchs – Visit to a Small Planet – provided – please read prior to class
- All My Sons by Arthur Miller: Please read prior to the start of the session and have available every time we meet.
- She Kills Monsters by Qui Nguyen – will be sent
- Letters to a Young Artist: Straight-up Advice on Making a Life in the Arts - For Actors, Performers, Writers, and Artists of Every Kind, by Anna Deavere Smith – see day by day for reading assignments

Assignments:

Students will complete assignments in and out of class. Minimum application by the student to the assignments will result in an average grade of C. Maximum application by the student to the projects can result in an A. Please see the attached rubric for how work in this course will be considered and graded.

In Class Participation: One can only learn acting by DOING. Therefore, it is imperative to your success in the class that you are present, on time, and ready to work. You will be graded on your willingness to participate, both in discussion and in exercises, on your working relationship with your partners in etude and scene work, and on your willingness to work as part of a larger ensemble.

Etude Assessment: You will turn in an Etude Assessment for both Etudes worked on in class. See the template. Assessments are due the day after your Etude goes up in class. These assessments will be scored for their ability to fulfill CA Pillar 1 – please be thoughtful and use language introduced in class to analyze your work in the Etude/Scene.

Five Question Breakdown: You will do a breakdown of All My Sons using the Five Questions document.

Letter to a Young Artist Response: On the last day of class, you will turn in a written response to LTYA. It must be at least a page and a half, and list at least ten quotes or observations or insights from the reading that you found interesting, challenging, spectacular, ridiculous, etc. and WHY you found those particular passages of interest.
Reflection Paper You are required to write a reflection paper on the learning in class, between ½ to a page. You will be sent a template to use for reference. This paper will be due the last day of class.
