EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2019

The DBA & Caruth Institute for Children's Rights Education Symposium is a multidisciplinary gathering of minds on how to improve educational outcomes for young people. Attendees include educators, school psychologists, attorneys, child welfare specialists, child placement agencies, parents and foster parents, policy makers, community activists, and the young people themselves.

Program Highlights:

Creating Safe and Supportive Schools for Students in Texas: Legislative Actions and Next Steps – Josette Saxton, Texans Care For Children

Navigating Section 504 and the IDEA: An Introduction to Advocating for Students with Disabilities – Kym Rogers, Disability Rights Texas

Education Law Legislative Update – Katie Anderson and Pete Thompson, Clark Hill

Keynote Speaker – Mike Guinn, Urban Youth Specialist

A Climate of Fear: Serving Immigrant Children in Texas – Constance Wannamaker, C.R. Wannamaker Law, PLLC

Speaking Truth to Power: Former Foster Youth on What Works in the Classroom – Jiacheng Yu (moderator), SMU Child Advocacy Clinic, and Former Foster Youth Panel

Trauma 2.0: Connecting with the Traumatized Child– Caryn Sawlis, Ph.D. and Richard Heflin, M.Ed., ESC Region 10
