

Today we salute our graduates, who stand ready to take the next steps into the future. And we honor the students, faculty, staff, parents and friends who shaped SMU's first 100 years and laid the foundation for an extraordinary second century.

RETIRING FACULTY

LYNN ROMEJKO JACOBS

Lynn Romejko Jacobs, professor in the Department of Applied Physiology and Wellness (APW) in the Simmons School of Education and Human Development, joined the SMU faculty in 1980 as an assistant professor after earning a B.A. at SMU in 1974 and M.A. at SMU in 1978. In 1989, she received a Ph.D. in kinesiology from Texas Woman's University. She previously was the director of applied physiology and enterprise and was a co-founder of the applied physiology and sport management major, along with the wellness program. She has served as department chair in APW for the past 10 years. During her 42-year career at SMU, Professor Jacobs was honored with SMU's Distinguished University Citizen Award, given to faculty who have distinguished themselves through service within the University and in the community; the SMU Hope Award for teaching excellence; the Sam Taylor Fellowship scholarship; and the Outstanding Big Sister Award for Tarrant County. Her expertise and research focus on adult fitness and wellness, heart patient rehabilitation, and employee fitness programs. She retires as professor emerita of applied physiology and wellness.

VERÓNICA G. LEÓN

Verónica G. León, senior lecturer of Spanish in Dedman College's Department of World Languages and Literatures, joined SMU's faculty as an adjunct instructor in 1994 and became a full-time lecturer in 1995. She earned her B.A. in Letras Españolas at the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey, Mexico, M.A. at Indiana State University and Ph.D. at the University of Texas at Austin. Over her decades of service, she has taught all levels of Spanish, from beginning language classes to advanced studies of Spanish American literature. Her dedication to teaching advanced Spanish for heritage speakers is perhaps her most lasting legacy. She also inspired generations of students to become world changers by directing two popular summer abroad programs, SMU-in-Xalapa from 2000 to 2010 and SMU-in-Costa Rica from 2011 to 2019. She served on the Education Abroad Committee for many years, was the Spanish advisor from 2005 to 2010, and participated in countless departmental committees. Additionally, she has been the faculty advisor for the Kappa Delta Chi sorority since 2004. She was nominated four times by students for the HOPE Professor of the Year award, and in 2009, she was recognized with the Rotunda Outstanding Professor award.

DOUGLAS A. REINELT

Douglas A. Reinelt, professor of mathematics in Dedman College, joined SMU in 1983 after earning a B.S. at University of the Pacific and Ph.D. at California Institute of Technology. At SMU, he served as Mathematics Department chair from 1999 to 2005 and 2009 to 2015; president of the Faculty Senate and member of the Board of Trustees in 2015–2016; and associate provost for faculty affairs from 2016 to 2020. In addition, he served on the Faculty Council, Advisory Committee for Promotion and Tenure in Dedman College Division III, Undergraduate Council and many other University committees. In 2007, he received the Mathematics Department's Betty McKnight Spears

Endowed Teaching Excellence Award. For his work with Habitat for Humanity (HfH), he earned the SMU Faculty Volunteer of the Year Award in 2007. He also received HfH Dallas chapter's highest honor, the Mary Brock Award, in 2011 for his commitment to the mission of eradicating substandard housing in the Dallas area. Professor Reinelt's major research focus is on mathematical modeling, scientific computation and perturbation analysis of free surface fluid problems, including fluid dynamics of bubbles and thin films, coating flows, and foam rheology. He retires as professor emeritus of mathematics.

CLAUDIA STEPHENS

Claudia Stephens, associate professor of theatre in Meadows School of the Arts, is a native Texan with a B.F.A. from UT Austin and M.F.A. in costume design from Carnegie Mellon. She joined SMU in 1996 after 12 years as a freelance costume designer based in New York City. For 37 years, she worked on over 170 productions across the U.S. In New York City, she designed for Lincoln Center, Juilliard, Manhattan School of Music, Playwrights Horizons, Big Dance Theater, Primary Stages and many others. Professor Stephens worked on Broadway shows with Martin Short, Bernadette Peters, Brenda Vaccaro, Kate Burton and Cynthia Nixon. Notable Broadway shows include Neil Simon's Jake's Women and Stephen Sondheim's Into the Woods. She designed for opera companies, and her U.S. theatre experience includes Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Utah Shakespeare Festival, St. Louis Repertory, Cleveland Play House, Denver Center and Dallas Theater Center. She also worked on Dirty Dancing. Professor Stephens has served on multiple SMU committees and the Faculty Senate and as chair of the Division of Theatre. She also served on the national board of the University Resident Theatre Association. After SMU retirement, Professor Stephens begins her next chapter as chaplain at Houston Methodist Hospital. She retires as professor emerita of theatre.

STEVEN B. VIK

Steven B. Vik, professor of biological sciences, joined the SMU faculty in 1987 after earning a B.S. in chemistry at the California Institute of Technology and Ph.D. in biochemistry at the University of Oregon and pursuing postdoctoral studies at Scripps Research and Stanford University. Vik, who created the biochemistry major at SMU, served as advisor of undergraduate biochemistry students since 1993 and also led the Department of Biological Sciences as chair from 2011 to 2014. During his career at SMU, Vik has been honored as a Ford Research Fellow and Dedman Family Distinguished Professor. His research on the structure and function of membrane-bound enzymes, specifically ATP synthase and Complex I, which are central to energy production in cells, has been funded for many years by grants from the National Institutes of Health, American Heart Association and the Welch Foundation. He has published 54 peer-reviewed articles and served on the editorial board of the Journal of Biological Chemistry for 10 years. He retires as professor emeritus of biological sciences.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

GRANT S. MOISE

Grant S. Moise is a veteran digital media executive who currently serves as the president and publisher of The Dallas Morning News, one of the leading daily newspapers in the United States.

Moise was promoted to the lead position in 2018 after working for over a decade with The Dallas Morning News in various capacities. From 2013 to 2017, he was the senior vice president of business development and niche products. In that role, Moise oversaw mergers and acquisitions and was instrumental in aligning each of the new businesses into the paper's operations. He also ran various related businesses owned or operated by The News, including magazines, Spanish-language newspapers and digital startups. Prior to that, he worked as vice president of digital, revamping the paper's digital presence.

Moise is on the boards of Providence Christian School of Texas, News Media Alliance, Dallas Citizens Council and the Cary M. Maguire Center for Ethics and Public Responsibility.

He has a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Kansas and an MBA from Texas Christian University.

A native of New Mexico, Moise currently resides in Dallas with his wife, Katie, and their three children, Macy, Lyle and Reid.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

ANITA NAÑEZ MARTINEZ

Born in Dallas' Little Mexico neighborhood in 1925, Anita Nañez Martinez has dedicated her life to enriching the civic and cultural life of the city of her birth. At age 14, she organized a successful petition to pave her neighborhood's streets. She was the first in her family to graduate from high school, after which she took several classes at SMU's downtown campus. In 1969, Martinez was elected as the first Mexican American member of the Dallas City Council where she advocated for West Dallas residents and motivated other community members to become engaged in local politics. Her chief accomplishments included the approval of a new recreation center in West Dallas, which was named in her honor; the founding of the Los Barrios Unidos Community Clinic; and the procurement of funds for a much-needed renovation of Pike Park. After completing her second term as councilwoman, she was asked by President Richard Nixon to help evaluate the effectiveness of the Peace Corps around the globe. In 1975, she founded the Anita N. Martinez Ballet Folklórico, an organization dedicated to creating "a cultural and educational foundation to unlock the potential of every child through active engagement in the arts," which continues to inspire new generations of Dallas children today. For her dedication to enriching the civic and cultural life of the city, SMU is honored to confer the degree Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

In 1911, a Methodist education commission made a commitment to establish a major Methodist university in Texas. More than 600 acres of open prairie and $300,000 pledged by a group of Dallas citizens secured the university for Dallas, and it was chartered as Southern Methodist University. In appreciation of the city's support, the first building to be constructed on the campus was named Dallas Hall. It remains the centerpiece and symbol of SMU. When the University opened in 1915, it consisted of two buildings, 706 students, a 35-member faculty and total assets of $636,540. The original schools of SMU were the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology and the School of Music.

Today SMU offers more than 115 undergraduate majors, master's degrees in more than 140 areas, doctoral degrees in 35 fields and more than 45 certificate programs. Enrollment for the spring 2022 term was 11,991, including 6,677 undergraduate students and 5,314 graduate students. SMU students come from 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 82 countries. About 76% of first-year students received some form of financial assistance for spring 2022.

In addition to preparing students for graduate and professional schools, or more directly for their life's work, the University strives to enhance their social, moral, intellectual and religious development so that they may lead worthy lives as individuals and citizens of the nation and of the world.

ACADEMIC PROCESSION, REGALIA TRADITION AND SMU REGALIA

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe – chief among them Bologna, Paris and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the church in their official public functions.

The caps and gowns worn in the procession vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the "mortarboard" style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree, or the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g., arts, engineering, law). Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer's back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks and very useful for protection against the weather and even for begging for alms. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer, and the university that granted the degree.

Candidates for degrees at SMU are robed in custom regalia, designed to incorporate SMU's colors and symbols.

The doctoral gown in dark blue includes velvet chevrons on each of the bell sleeves. The front velvet panels are embroidered in gold thread with the SMU seal, and gold braid outlines the chevrons and panels. An eight-sided, crimson red velvet tam with a gold silk tassel completes the regalia.

The master's gown, also in dark blue, has a front yolk outlined in red braid, and the SMU seal is embroidered in red on the left side. Gowns have a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist. A mortarboard with a colored tassel representing the discipline in which the degree is earned also is worn.

Doctoral and master's candidates wear hoods that are 3½ feet long and 4 feet long, respectively. SMU's hood lining is blue with red chevron.

The bachelor's gowns' distinguishing characteristics are the long pointed sleeves and full front pleats. A red silk Stole of Gratitude embroidered in blue with the SMU seal is worn across the shoulders. It is tradition for graduates to present their stoles to individuals who have made a positive impact in their lives. Bachelor's gowns are worn with a tassel and mortarboard.

Through these colorful ceremonies, SMU symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.

THE HOWARD LANTERN

The Howard Lantern is dedicated to Professor Lorn Lambier Howard, chief marshal emeritus of SMU from 1978–1987. Crafted out of steel, aluminum and water glass, the lantern depicts the Rotunda of Dallas Hall. Engraved around the base is the University's motto, Veritas Liberabit Vos, which means "The truth will make you free."

Around the top band are the words to Varsity, SMU's alma mater. The lantern serves as a reminder of the important traditions that make up our University life and the light of learning and intellectual curiosity that shines within the students, faculty and staff at SMU.

PRESIDENTIAL COLLAR AND MEDALLION

Chains of office, also known as collars, were used as badges of office in the Middle Ages. Today they are custom-designed metal necklaces worn by the president during academic ceremonies as part of his or her regalia.

The chain of office designed for the 10th president of SMU, R. Gerald Turner, is made of bronze, a strong and durable metal. The medallion of the necklace is dominated by the University seal design, just as the seal is the centerpiece in the floor of the Rotunda in Dallas Hall, SMU's historic first building.

The bail, joining the medallion and the chain, represents the institution's bond between the faculty and the student body. Equally, the 32-inch chain, a work of art whose two ends are clasped together, represents the joining of the desire to teach and the eagerness to learn demonstrated by SMU's faculty and students.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Staffs that call groups to order are as old as civilization itself. Today's ceremonial maces descend particularly from medieval armor-piercing clubs topped by bludgeoning balls. These fierce weapons swiftly acquired symbolic meaning. By the 14th century, a mace, carried at the front of formal processions, required bystanders to note the authority and integrity of the event. In the 16th century, this formidable weapon lost its battle utility but took a symbolic turn: the spiked head evolved into a decorative orb. The European tradition by which universities presented maces on solemn occasions to signify their independence and protective power was adopted by their successors worldwide. The mace-bearer, who is the president of the Faculty Senate, leads formal ceremonies carrying this visible reminder of the University's history and status.

The 22-pound mace currently in use at SMU is linked to the inauguration of President Willis M. Tate (1954–1972 and 1974–75) and is known as the Tate Mace. The 57-inch staff is topped by a 10½-inch orb that represents not only the University's worldly authority but also echoes its distinctive neoclassical style. The orb is impressed with the seal of the University and is encircled with SMU's motto, Veritas

THE BRADLEY KENT CARTER BATON

The Bradley Kent Carter Baton is carried by the chief marshal during academic ceremonies and represents the authority of the collective faculty in the academic life of the institution and of the role of chief marshal as master of ceremonies at formal university convocations.

A tradition dating back 500 years ago to the University of Oxford, the chief marshal oversees the faculty members of the Guild of Marshals. Faculty marshals are responsible for the execution of the ceremony, the upholding of decorum and traditions, and the processions of candidates, faculty and the platform party. SMU's marshals are identified by their bright red gowns with black chevrons.

The Carter Baton is dedicated to Associate Professor Emeritus of Political Science and chief marshal Emeritus Bradley Kent Carter, who served for many years in the Guild of Marshals before serving as chief marshal from 1991–2008. Professor Carter is a staunch supporter of the traditions and customs of academic ceremonies, but also added his own mark in fostering a number of the traditions now celebrated.

Made from rosewood, the Carter Baton initially served as the University's first official academic ceremonial mace until it was replaced in 1954 by the Tate Mace, currently still in use. The orb of the Carter Baton bears the seal of SMU. In the fall of 2017, it was refurbished with bronze bands honoring all known chief marshals in SMU's history. During the ceremony it is placed on a custom stand. The original designer and manufacturer of the baton are unknown. Refurbishment was completed by Medallion Art Company.

SMU

SMU is the nationally ranked global research university in the dynamic city of Dallas. SMU's alumni, faculty and more than 12,000 students in eight degree-granting schools demonstrate an entrepreneurial spirit as they lead change in their professions, communities and the world.

Building on its history of excellence, the University has launched SMU Ignited: Boldly Shaping Tomorrow – a multiyear $1.5 billion campaign to empower outstanding students, to enrich teaching and research, and to enhance our campus and community.
