

THE INFINITY PROJECT™

The body is an integrated system that gives us capabilities such as reasoning, thought, movement, and strength. In this unit, we study how the cardiovascular system works, understand and demonstrate how vital signs such as heart rate are measured, and develop data analysis techniques that provide us a look into how wearable technologies track our health.

Curriculum License: $109

Student Manual: $12.95

