ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN JAZZ, DIVISION OF DANCE, SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Position #00006582

Full-Time Position: Assistant Professor, tenure-track, beginning August 2019. The Division of Dance invites nominations and applications for an opportunity to be instrumental in the shaping of a dynamic, comprehensive and holistic program in dance performance. Creative energy, intellectual strength, a broad-ranging repertoire and teaching interests are essential. We welcome candidates from all backgrounds. The candidate selected will be expected to be a significant partner in connecting the Division to an increasingly diverse and globally-connected community within the university and the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.

Duties: Teach all levels of jazz technique, dance composition, and choreograph original work and/or re-stage masterworks for mainstage concerts. We seek candidates who have a strong background in performance and choreography and a record of distinction as artist and teacher. Other responsibilities include advising undergraduates, participating in student recruitment, serving on Divisional committees, attending faculty meetings and supervising student projects. Terminal degree and/or equivalent professional performing experience required. University level teaching and expertise in one other area of dance related studies such as dance history, kinesiology, or somatic practices is desirable but not required.

To ensure full consideration for this position, please submit the following: letter of application highlighting qualifications, complete curriculum vitae, links to choreography and/or performance, and three letters of recommendation. The Division uses Interfolio ByCommittee for applications and digital uploads. Use the following link to apply and upload materials: apply.interfolio.com/53635 Position begins August 1, 2019. The committee will begin its review of the applications on or about November 12, 2018. Applications should be uploaded to Interfolio on or before November 9, 2018, but will be accepted until the position is filled.
