Please use as much space as you need to complete the following statements. The sizes of the blank spaces below are NOT intended to specify a desired length for your responses.

NOTE: In this context, the words “create” and “audience” are not intended to imply a bias toward “creative projects.” The results of scholarship and research are, in fact, “created,” and there are “audiences” for such results just as is the case for the results of creative activities.

Please complete the following statements. Use as much space as necessary.

Name(s) __________________________________________________________________________

• I/We will create ____________________________________________________________________ .

• My/Our intended audience is ________________________________________________________ .

• I/We were inspired by ________________________________________________________________ .

• My/Our Faculty Sponsor(s) will participate in this project by _____________________________ .

• To create __________________________________________ and reach and engage my/our audience, I/we will take the following steps: