

Lindsey M. Trozzo is a Ph.D candidate at Baylor University, where she is writing her dissertation on ethics in John's Gospel. She joined the Perkins/SMU community in the Fall of 2015 as an adjunct instructor in New Testament. She also works at Texas Christian University as the Research and Teaching Assistant to the Bradford Chair. Lindsey grew up in church ministry, and both of her parents still serve in a Baptist church near Austin, TX. Having inherited a heart for the community of faith, Lindsey gave her college summers to youth ministry, and she served for two years as the Youth Discipleship Associate for Bel Air Presbyterian Church before relocating to Baylor.
